Provide for flexibility for local action and empower mothers and community to have a stake in the programme.

1.14 A road map has been prepared for strengthening and restructuring ICDS. It envisages introduction of Annual Programme Implementation Plan (APIP) in Phase I and a proposal for implementation of the Scheme in a Mission Mode from 12th Plan in Phase II.

1.15 Steps have been taken to revamp the existing Management Information System (MIS) of the ICDS Programme to ensure consistent and accurate recording and reporting of critical programme implementation data, as also to minimize efforts of the AWWs and other functionaries. CARINGS is an online web-based platform under which prospective parents can register on-line, track the progress of their application and get information about availability of children, thus making the process more transparent. 2 | Women Development

Towards a new dawn

Women Development

2.1 It has been widely accepted that the goals of human development are closely intertwined with development and empowerment of women, who, as an independent group, constitute about 48.2 percent of the total population of India. Women constitute a valuable human resource and their socio-economic development is imperative for sustainable growth of the economy. Our laws, development policies, plans and programmes are aimed at women's advancement in different spheres. The principles of gender equality are enshrined in the Indian Constitution, in its

Preamble, Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties and Directive Principles.

2.2 Drawing strength from the constitutional provisions, the Government of India has been continuously striving towards all round well-being, development and empowerment of women. The planning process has also evolved over the years from purely 'welfare' oriented approach to recognizing women's centrality in the development process, cutting across all sectors.

Towards Empowerment of Women

- Setting up of the National Commission for Women by an Act of Parliament in 1990 to safeguard the rights and legal entitlements of women.
- The 73rd and 74th Constitutional Amendments (1993) to provide for reservation of seats for women in the local bodies of Panchayats and Municipalities.
- India's ratification of the Convention on Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW) in 1993 to secure equal rights to women.
- Upgradation of Department of Women and Child Development to a Ministry under the independent charge of Minister of State for Women and Child Development with effect from 30th January, 2006

2.3 In its capacity as the nodal Ministry, the Ministry of Women and Child Development seeks to promote the social and economic empowerment of women through policies and programmes cutting across sectors, mainstreaming gender concerns, creating awareness about their rights and facilitating institutional and legislative support for enabling them to develop to their full potential. Towards this end, the Ministry has been engaged in review of existing gender-specific laws to remove gender bias, bringing new legislations aimed at gender justice and implementing Schemes / Programmes.

I. NATIONAL POLICY FOR EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN, 2001

2.4 The National Policy for Empowerment of Women, 2001 (NPEW) was formulated as the blueprint for the future, with the express goal of addressing women's felt needs and bringing about their advancement, development and empowerment. The NPEW laid down detailed prescriptions to, inter alia, address discrimination against women, strengthen existing institutions which includes the legal system, provide better access to healthcare and other services, equal opportunities for women's participation in decision-making and mainstreaming gender concerns in the development process.

2.5 The NPEW was envisaged as a comprehensive framework which is progressive and forward looking in nature. In the coming years, the Ministry proposes to undertake the formulation of a plan of action to implement the National Policy through an intensive consultative process.

2.6 Towards this end, the launch of the National Mission for Empowerment of Women (NMEW) on 8th March, 2010 by the Ministry of Women and Child Development was an important development, which would provide the much required fillip for a coordinated assessment of current Government interventions and aligning future programmes so as to translate the NPEW prescriptions into reality.

National Mission for Empowerment of Women

2.7 The objective of the Mission is to empower women socially economically and educationally by securing convergence of scheme/programmes of different Ministries / Departments of Government of India as well as State Governments. The National Mission Authority (NMA) is headed by the Hon'ble Prime Minister and has Chief Ministers of two States of Andhra Pradesh & Bihar and five Civil Society Organisations as Members. The NMA is assisted by Central Monitoring Committee headed by Minister of Women and Child Development and Inter-Ministerial Coordination Committee (IMCC) under Cabinet Secretary. To assist NMA and IMCC, there would be Mission Directorate and National Resource Centre for Women (NRCW). Similarly, at the State level, there would be a State Mission Authority (SMA) and State Resource Centre for Women (SRCW). The Governments of Andhra Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Chhattisgarh, Mizoram, Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, Jharkhand and Union Territory of Chandigarh Administration have established the State Mission Authority and remaining States are in the process to form the SMA. The Mission is yet to receive the approval of Planning Commission as a Centrally Sponsored Scheme.

II. SPECIAL LEGISLATIONS FOR WOMEN

i) Review of Existing Laws and Strengthening Implementation

Indecent Representation of Women (Prohibition) Act, 1986

2.9 The Indecent Representation of Women (Prohibition) Act, 1986 (IRWA) was enacted with the specific objective of prohibiting the indecent representation of women through advertisement, publication, writing, painting figures or in any other manner. However, in view of the technological revolution and development of new forms of communication such as internet and satellite based communication, it has become imperative to widen the scope of the law and strengthen existing safeguards for prohibition of indecent representation of women. A proposal to amend the Act was formulated by the National Commission for Women after holding wide ranging consultations at National and Regional levels. The proposed amendments were discussed in an Inter-Ministerial Group (IMG) constituted by the Ministry. The Ministry is currently in the process of drafting the Amendment Bill in consultation with the Ministry of Law and Justice.

The Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961

2.10 The culturally sanctioned practice of dowry and the resulting violence perpetrated on women is one of the single biggest forms of discrimination against women in India. According to the data available with the National Crime Records Bureau (2009), there were 5,650 cases registered under the Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961 in 2009. With a view to strengthen the provisions of the Act and to ensure its effective enforcement for containment of this practice, certain amendments to the Act were suggested by the National Commission for Women. These were deliberated upon by an Inter-Ministerial Group constituted by the Ministry for this purpose and are presently under consideration of the Ministry.

The Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956

2.11 The Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 (ITPA) is the premier legislation for prevention of trafficking for commercial sexual exploitation. The amendments to Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 to widen its scope, provide stringent punishment to the traffickers and other perpetrators of the crime, prevent re-victimization of victims and make its implementation more effective are under consideration of the Ministry.

The Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005

The PWDVA:

- Provides civil remedies in the nature of protection orders, residence orders, maintenance, compensation and temporary custody orders to women facing domestic violence within the home.
- Recognizes and declares the right to reside in the shared household.
- Establishes a coordinated implementation mechanism to ensure women have access to and enjoy support services such as shelter, medical relief and legal assistance through:
 - ✓ Appointment of Protection Officers, who are to act as the link between women and the courts on the one hand and women and support services on the other.
 - ✓ Registration of Service Providers and notification of medical facilities and shelter homes.

2.12 The States / UTs have been requested to appoint Protection Officers, register service providers and give wide publicity to the Act for creating awareness about its provisions. The States / UTs have also been advised to send quarterly reports on the implementation of the Act.

2.13 Implementation of the PWDVA was reviewed by the Ministry in the Conferences of State Ministers and State Secretaries in charge of Women and Child Development which took place on 16 -17th June, 2010 and 28th October, 2010 respectively. The need for appointment of Protection Officers with independent charge, training of all relevant functionaries, awareness generation and regular data collection, among others was impressed upon.

ii) New Initiatives:

2.14 Sexual harassment at workplace is a violation of women's right to gender equality, life and liberty. It creates an insecure and hostile work environment, which discourages women's participation in work, thereby adversely affecting their economic empowerment and the goal of inclusive growth. Reaffirming that sexual harassment at workplace is a form of discrimination against women and recognizing that this violates the Constitutional Right to Equality, the Supreme Court of India in the case of Vishaka & Ors. V. State of Rajasthan & Ors. (1997) provided guidelines to address this issue pending the enactment of a suitable legislation.

2.15 The Government introduced the 'Protection of Women against Sexual Harassment at Workplace Bill, 2010' in Lok Sabha on 7th December, 2010, which covers the organised and unorganised sectors and seeks to provide every woman, irrespective of her age or employment status (excluding domestic women workers) a safe and secure environment free from sexual harassment by fixing responsibility on the employer and laying down a redressal mechanism. The Bill has been referred to the Parliamentary Standing Committee for its consideration

KEY FEATURES OF THE BILL

"The Protection of Women against Sexual Harassment at Workplace Bill, 2010" aims at:

- Providing protection to women against sexual harassment at all workplaces both in the public and private sector, whether organized or unorganized and for the prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment.
- Covering women who are employed as well as those who enter the workplace as clients, customers or apprentices, besides the students and research scholars in colleges and universities and patients in hospitals .
- Laying down an effective complaints & redressal mechanism in the form of Internal and Local Complaints Committees.

III. SCHEMES FOR WOMEN

i) New Schemes

Rajiv Gandhi Scheme for Empowerment of Adolescent Girls (RGSEAG) - SABLA

2.16 Adolescent girls (11-18 years) in India constitute nearly 17% of the country's population and are a core resource for national growth. Investment in their health and development translates to investment in the greater well-being of the country.

2.17 According to NFHS-3, the percentage of anaemia among adolescent girls (15 to 19 years) is 55.8%. A large proportion of girls (47%) get married before the age of 18 years which exposes them to risk of early pregnancy, sexually transmitted infections, early child birth, etc. Even though the number of girls marrying before the legal minimum age at marriage of 18 years is on the decline, the number is still sizable.

2.18 There is need for influencing health-seeking behavior of adolescent girls and addressing adolescent-specific issues with specific strategies and interventions. For achieving this objective, Government of India has recently introduced the Rajiv Gandhi Scheme for Empowerment of Adolescent Girls - SABLA. The Scheme is to be piloted initially in 200 districts across the country. List of these districts is at Annex-V. In the remaining districts, Kishori Shakti Yojana (KSY), where operational, would continue as before. Nutrition Programme for Adolescent Girls (NPAG) would cease to operate as all the districts of NPAG have been incorporated in SABLA.

2.19 The Scheme was launched by Hon'ble Home Minister, Shri P. Chidambaram in the presence of Hon'ble Minister of State for Women and Child Development, Smt. Krishna Tirath in a function in Vigyan Bhawan on 19th November, 2010. More than 1200 participants attended the function, including senior officers from States/UTs, Anganwadi Workers and ICDS functionaries, Senior Representatives of UNICEF, WFP, CARE, WHO, World Bank, UNIFEM and Eminent Academicians and Research Institutions.

Shri P. Chidambaram, Hon'ble Home Minister, Smt. Krishna Tirath, MOS (I/C), MWCD and Shri D. K. Sikri, Secretary, MWCD on the occasion of Launching of 'Rajiv Gandhi Scheme for Empowerment of Adolescent Girls- SABLA'.

2.20 SABLA is to be implemented through the State Governments/UTs with 100 per cent financial assistance from the Central Government for all inputs other than nutrition provision for which 50 % Central assistance to States would be provided. Anganwadi Centre will be the focal point for the delivery of the services. Emphasis on convergence of various schemes/ programmes viz. Health, Education, Youth Affairs, Labour, PRIs etc. is envisaged so as to achieve the desired impact.

2.21 The Scheme aims at improving the health and nutrition status besides equipping the girls on family welfare, health hygiene, etc. and information and guidance on existing public services. The focus of the Scheme is on out of school girls. An integrated package of services of Nutrition Component and Non Nutrition Component would be provided to adolescent girls as under:

i) Nutrition Component:

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------------|
| 11-14 years AGs : | Out of school girls |
| 14-18 years AGs : | All girls |

ii) Non Nutrition Component

For Out of school AGs :

a) 11-18 years

- Nutrition provision,
- IFA supplementation,
- Health check-up and Referral services,
- Nutrition & Health Education (NHE),
- Counseling/Guidance on family welfare, ARSH, child care practices,
- Life Skill Education and accessing public services

b) 16-18 Years

- Vocational training under National Skill Development Program (NSDP)

For school going AGs of 11-18 years, the non-nutrition component (except vocational training) is to be provided twice a month in school days and four times a month in vacations.

2.22 Five one day Regional Workshops were organized between October - December 2010 to orient/sensitize functionaries of ICDS and line Ministries about the Scheme and its implementation mechanism. The Scheme was also discussed with Secretaries of States / UTs in a National Meeting on 27th October, 2010 and with State Ministers on 28th January, 2011. Implementation Guidelines for SABLA have been circulated to States/UTs and posted on the website of the Ministry. Baseline surveys to identify the beneficiaries have been carried out by the States / UTs. Funds of ₹ 328 crores have been released for SABLA upto 28th February, 2011.

Indira Gandhi Matritva Sahyog Yojana

2.23 Under-nutrition continues to adversely affect majority of women in India. An undernourished mother almost inevitably gives birth to a low birth weight baby. When poor nutrition starts in-utero, it extends throughout the life cycle, particularly in women. Owing to economic and social distress many women continue to work to earn a living for their family right up to the last days of their pregnancy. Furthermore, they resume working soon after childbirth, even though their bodies might not permit it, thus preventing their bodies from fully recovering on one hand, and also impeding their ability to exclusively breastfeed their young infant in the first six months.

2.24 Although Janani Suraksha Yojana (JSY) of Ministry of Health and Family Welfare (MoH&FW) provides a one-time cash incentive to a pregnant woman for institutional delivery / home delivery through skilled assistance, it does not address wage loss during pregnancy and after delivery. Hence, a need for introducing a modest maternity benefit to partly compensate for the wage loss of Pregnant and Lactating (P & L) women was recommended by the Planning Commission in the XIth Five Year Plan.

2.25 Keeping this in view, the Ministry of Women and Child Development has introduced a new Scheme for P & L women called Indira Gandhi Matritva Sahyog Yojana (IGMSY) - a Conditional Maternity Benefit Scheme to be implemented from 2010-11, initially in 52 pilot districts across the country. List of these districts is at Annex-VI. The Scheme is to be implemented using the ICDS platform and will cover approximately 14 lakh women in the initial years.

2.26 IGMSY is a centrally Sponsored Scheme under which full grant-in-aid would be provided to State Governments/Union Territories. The Scheme envisages providing cash directly to P&L women in response to the individual fulfilling specific conditions. The Scheme attempts to partly compensate for wage loss to P & L women both prior to and after delivery of the child. The Scheme will increase the demand for health services and promote recommended nutrition and health behaviours.

2.27 The objectives of the IGMSY Scheme are to improve the health and nutrition status of pregnant and lactating women and their young infants by:

- i. Promoting appropriate practices, care and service utilization during pregnancy, safe delivery and lactation.
- ii. Encouraging the women to follow (optimal) Infant and Young Child Feeding practices including early and exclusive breast feeding for six months.
- iii. Contributing to better enabling environment by providing cash incentives for improved health and nutrition to pregnant and nursing mothers.

2.28 A cash incentive of ₹ 4000 is to be provided under the Scheme to P & L women of 19 years of age and above, for the first two live births, subject to the woman fulfilling specific conditions relating to maternal child health and nutrition. All Government/PSUs (Central & State) employees would be excluded from the Scheme as they are entitled for paid maternity leave. Cash incentive would be provided in three installments, between the second trimester of pregnancy till the infant completes 6 months of age as under:

| Cash Transfer | Conditions |
|---|---|
| ₹ 1500 (at the end of second trimester) | i. Registration of pregnancy within 4 months ii. One Ante Natal Checkup (minimum) including IFA & TT iii. Attending Counselling session (minimum one) |
| Incentive under JSY (at the time of birth by MoH & FW) | For Institutional / Home delivery as per norms |
| ₹ 1500 (3 months after delivery) | i. Child birth registration ii. Immunization iii. Attending growth monitoring and counselling sessions |
| ₹ 1000 (6 months after delivery) | i. Exclusive breastfeeding for 6 months & introduction of complementary feeding (self certification by mother) ii. Immunization iii. Attending growth monitoring and counseling sessions. |

2.29 An incentive of ₹ 200 per beneficiary for Anganwadi Workers and ₹ 100 per beneficiary for Anganwadi Helpers is provided for in the Scheme so that they can be fully involved in motivating the women to participate in the Scheme.

2.30 Four regional workshops for sensitization cum roll-out of IGMSY have been conducted between December, 2010 - January, 2011 in collaboration with State Governments, NIPCCD and UNICEF. These workshops have been attended by over 270 participants from 31 States/UTs. Most States/UTs have completed the baseline survey. An amount of ₹ 101 crore has been released for IGMSY upto 28th February, 2011.

‘Financial Assistance and Support Services to Victims of Rape: A Scheme for Restorative Justice’

2.31 Rape is one of the most violent forms of crimes against women, which not only impacts her bodily integrity but, in the long run, impairs her capacity to develop meaningful personal and social relationships and affects her life and livelihood. The victim of rape suffers mental and psychological trauma, which must be addressed so that she is able to lead a dignified and meaningful life.

2.32 While no amount of financial assistance can adequately compensate for the injury, both physical and emotional, faced by a victim of rape, the Ministry formulated a Scheme ‘Financial Assistance and Support Services to Victims of Rape’ to provide a helping hand to enable her to cope with the trauma suffered and to tide over her immediate and long-term needs. It is founded on the principle of restorative justice and seeks to restore the affected woman to a position of dignity and self-confidence. The scheme proposes to cover women and minor girls who are victims of rape.

In furtherance of the goal of ensuring restorative justice, the proposed Scheme provides for:

- Financial assistance to the affected woman; and
- Support services such as shelter, counselling, medical aid, legal assistance, education and vocational training depending upon the needs of the victim.

Display of products by Karnataka Milk Federation, Bangalore under STEP Scheme in Vatsalya Mela of the Ministry.

2.33 The proposed Scheme also envisages the setting up of Criminal Injuries Relief and Rehabilitation Boards at the District, State and Central levels for consideration of claims and ensuring effective coordination between all stakeholders. The Ministry is currently pursuing and seeking approval of the Planning Commission for launching the proposed Scheme as Centrally Sponsored Scheme.

ii) Existing Schemes:

Support to Training & Employment Programme for Women (STEP)

2.34 STEP, a Central Sector Scheme launched in 1986-87, seeks to upgrade skill of poor and assetless women and provide employment on sustainable basis by mobilizing them in viable cooperative groups, strengthening marketing linkages, support services and access to credit. The scheme also provides for enabling support services in the form of health check-ups, legal and health literacy, elementary education, gender sensitization and mobile crèches. The ultimate endeavour of each project is to develop the group to thrive on a self-sustaining basis in the market place with minimal governmental support and intervention even after the project period is over. With a view to expanding the reach of the programme and further strengthening implementation and monitoring, norms and parameters of the STEP scheme have been revised in the year 2009. Under the revised norms of the scheme, the per capita cost has been enhanced to ₹ 16,000/-, minimum no. of beneficiaries for a project reduced to 200, project duration extended upto five years and locally appropriated sectors introduced. Since inception, around 250 projects have been provided financial assistance under the scheme.

2.35 The ten traditional sectors identified for project funding under STEP comprise of agriculture, animal husbandry, dairying, fisheries, handlooms, handicrafts, khadi and village industries, sericulture, wasteland development and social forestry. The scope and coverage of the scheme is being broadened with introduction of locally appropriate sectors being identified and incorporated into the scheme.

2.36 Besides the ongoing projects, 25 new projects have been sanctioned during the current year under STEP (upto 28th February, 2011). The achievement of scheme during the recent years is as under : -

| Year | Physical Achievements (No. of beneficiaries) | | Financial Achievements (₹ in lakh) | |
|---|---|-------------|---------------------------------------|----------------|
| | Target | Achievement | BE | Actual Exp. |
| 2009-10 | 30,000 | 21,963 | 1,500 | 1,229 |
| 2010-11 (upto 28 th February, 2011) | 35,000 | 32,600 | 2,500 | 1,952 |

The State-wise release of funds and beneficiaries during Xth Plan are given at Annex - VII. The State-wise release of funds and organization-wise details of fund released in 2009-10 and 2010-11 (upto 28th February, 2011) are at Annex - VIII & IX.

2.37 During the year, several efforts have been made to strengthen the implementation of the scheme. These include two consultations with States. Apart from monitoring of projects by the State Government, evaluation in respect of 19 projects has been completed through external agencies. In order to assist implementing agencies, a Programme Implementation Manual (PIM) for the scheme is under finalization.

Hostel for Working Women

2.38 The Scheme of Hostel for Working Women envisages provision of safe and affordable hostel accommodation to working women, single working woman, women working at places away from their home-towns and for women being trained for employment.

- Financial assistance for construction of hostel building to be given only on public land.

The construction of the hostel building at Jasola, New Delhi, has been completed in this current year. Over 1,00,000 households are to be covered under the project and 7,200 SHGs will be formed during the project period ending 2016-17. IV. PREVENTION OF TRAFFICKING OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN FOR COMMERCIAL SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

2.55 Trafficking of human beings, especially of women and children, is an organized crime violating all basic human rights. Poverty, illiteracy, lack of livelihood options, natural/man-made disasters are some of the factors that make a person vulnerable to trafficking. The Ministry of Women and Child Development is primarily concerned with trafficking for commercial sexual exploitation.

2.56 The magnitude of trafficking is difficult to estimate due to the clandestine nature of the crime. The stigma attached to prostitution makes it even more difficult to collect the authentic numbers. However, based on studies conducted by the Ministry from time to time, number of women and children in sex work in India is estimated to be 3 million. Most often, the victims are trafficked through means like duping, luring, fake marriages, abduction, kidnapping and through manipulation of social and economic vulnerabilities.

Smt. Krishna Tirath, Hon'ble MOS(I/C), MWCD, Shri Narendra Jadhav, Member Planning Commission with other dignitaries in a 'Conference on Issues and Challenges for Development of Scheduled Caste Women and Children'.

India's Commitment towards Prevention of Trafficking

- Article 23 of the Constitution of India prohibits trafficking in human beings and begar.
- “Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956” lays down provisions for stringent punishment to the perpetrators of the crime.
- Indian Penal Code also has provisions for preventing crimes related to trafficking.
- India is a signatory to the UN Convention against Transnational Organized Crime with its Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons especially Women and Children and is in the process of ratifying them.
- India has ratified
 - (a) The SAARC Convention on Preventing and Combating Trafficking of Women and Children in Prostitution;
 - (b) Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women; and
 - (c) Convention on the Rights of the Child.

2.57 The issue of trafficking in the country is a matter of concern. The Ministry of Women and Child Development has adopted a multi-pronged approach to prevent and combat trafficking which includes legislative measures; programmes and schemes for prevention of trafficking and for rescue, rehabilitation, reintegration and repatriation of victims of trafficking; training; capacity building; awareness generation; and empowerment of vulnerable groups.

The Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956

2.58 The Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956 (ITPA) is the premier legislation for prevention of trafficking for commercial sexual exploitation. It lays down stringent punishment for the perpetrators of the crime, such as, for keeping a brothel, living on the earnings of prostitution, procuring, inducing or taking persons for the sake of prostitution, detaining a person where prostitution is carried on, etc. The Act also provides for setting up of Protective Homes by the State Governments.

Integrated Plan of Action to Prevent and Combat Human Trafficking with special focus on Children and Women

2.59 In 1998, the Ministry formulated a National Plan of Action (NPA) to Combat Trafficking and Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Women and Children with the objective of mainstreaming and reintegrating the trafficked victims in society.

2.60 Since trafficking in human beings takes place for various purposes, such as, sexual exploitation, prostitution, domestic labor, child labor, bonded labour, slavery, organ trade, camel jockeying etc., Ministry of Women and Child Development, in collaboration with the Ministries of Home Affairs and Labour and Employment, National Human Rights Commission(NHRC) and National Commission for Women (NCW) is in the process of formulating an Integrated National Plan of Action to Prevent and Combat Human Trafficking with Special Focus on Children and Women (INOPA).

Scheme for Combating Trafficking

2.61 “Ujjawala”, a comprehensive scheme to combat trafficking was launched by the Ministry on 4th December, 2007 and is being implemented mainly through NGOs. The Scheme has five components-Prevention, Rescue, Rehabilitation, Re-Integration and Repatriation of trafficked victims for commercial sexual exploitation.

2.62 Some of the activities envisaged under the Scheme are: -

- Formation of community vigilance groups, adolescents groups, awareness creation and preparation of IEC material, holding workshops, etc.

- Safe withdrawal of victims from the place of exploitation.
- Rehabilitation of victims by providing them safe shelter, basic amenities, medical care, legal aid, vocational training and income generation activities.
- Re-integration of victims into society.
- Providing support to cross-border victims for their safe repatriation to their country of origin.

2.63 Under the scheme, assistance is provided to eligible organisations for undertaking the above activities. An Outlay of ₹ 10.00 crores was approved for the Scheme in 2010-11. 51 new projects have been sanctioned during the year taking the total number of sanctioned projects to 147 which includes 74 Rehabilitation Homes. Funds were released / sanctioned for 87 projects during the year (upto 28th February, 2011). Details of funds sanctioned / released to different organisations during 2009 - 10 and 2010 - 11 are given at Annex - XV & XVI.

Achievement: Projects sanctioned in the last two years

| Sl. No. | Year | Projects Sanctioned |
|----------------|---|----------------------------|
| 1. | 2009-10 | 17 |
| 2. | 2010-11 (up to 28 th February, 2011) | 51 |

Training and Capacity Building

2.64 The Ministry of Women and Child Development, in collaboration with National Institute of Public Co-operation and Child Development (NIPCCD), organizes trainings and workshops on issues related to trafficking for grant receiving NGOs, police and district level officers.

Cross border trafficking

2.65 To facilitate operationalization of the provisions of the SAARC Convention on Preventing and Combating Trafficking of Women and Children in Prostitution, the Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) have been finalized. At a Regional Task Force meeting held in April 2010, the Paper, prepared by India, for a uniform toll-free helpline for children was discussed.

V RECOGNITION OF WOMEN: STREE SHAKTI PURASKAR

2.66 Indian women have taken on different roles after Independence and excelled in many fields. The fact that in most cases, success has been achieved in the face of adversity and difficulties and with the strength of courage, initiative and determination makes them special.

2.67 It is important that such success stories are publicly recognized so that these women become role models for the future generations of Indian women. As a measure of recognition of achievements of individual women in the field of social development, the Government of India has instituted six national awards titled ‘Stree Shakti Puraskar’.

2.68 Five of these awards given in the names of Jhansi Ki Rani Lakshmi Bai, Kannagi, Rani Gaidinliu Zeliang, Devi Ahilya Bai, Mata Jija Bai were instituted in 1999. Another sub-category of Stree Shakti Award, which is named after Rani Rudramma Devi, has been added from the year 2007. These awards are given for outstanding administrative skill, leadership quality and courage and work towards empowerment of women. Each award carries a cash prize of ₹ 3.00 Lakh and a citation.

2.69 Stree Shakti Puraskar 2010 were presented to the awardees on 8th March, 2011 on the occasion of International Women’s Day.

empowerment in the region and beyond. In pursuance of this, a Women's Empowerment Dialogue (WED), co-chaired by Secretary, Ministry of Women and Child Development, Government of India and Ms. Melanne Verveer, Ambassador-at-Large for Global Women's Issues, USA, was initiated.

2.71 Two meetings of the WED were held in 2010-11. The first of these was held on 27th May, 2010, at Washington where the two sides discussed the initiatives that could be taken in the identified areas of mutual interest. Some of the initiatives that were contemplated were: taking the Indian model of local governance forward for advocacy in the neighbouring countries by developing a training program for women political leaders from within the region, bringing together a cross section of Indian Self-Help-Group leaders with counterparts in the US to discuss and share best practices with a view to empowering women socially and economically, providing Indian counterparts exposure to US programmes on Early Childhood Care and Education, and building a knowledge base on Gender Budgeting.

2.72 The discussion was taken forward at the third meeting of the co-chairs of the Indo-US Women's Empowerment Dialogue held on 15th September, 2010, at New Delhi. It was agreed that the US side would facilitate an interface between reputed front-end NGOs of India such as SEWA and US companies, like Walmart and GAP to provide a linkage to Indian SHGs to enable them to sell their products to such companies and also assist in their training, if needed. Ministry of Women & Child Development, has initiated the process of identifying good front-end NGOs in all parts of India, in consultation with the State Governments. To enhance governance capabilities of local women leaders, the possibility of developing a regional training programme for women Panchayat leaders and women political leaders from within the region with modules on leadership, budget preparation, constituency service needs identification and delivery was discussed. It was decided that India would first place this proposal for consideration of SAARC, the common regional platform of South Asian countries. Ministry of Panchayati Raj has been requested to take this matter up with the SAARC Secretariat. Home to the largest child population in the world and operating ICDS, one of the largest outreach programmes in the world, India is looking to develop national standards of service for Early Childhood Care and to build institutional capacity for curriculum building for Early Childhood Education. Ministry of Women and Child Development has given a proposal to the US side of the WED to forge professional partnerships for sharing of technical information and exchange visits for the personnel of institutes like NIPCCD.

India-Brazil-South Africa (IBSA) Women's Forum

2.73 The IBSA Women's Forum was created in 2007 to promote dialogue between the three countries to generate strategies for attaining gender equality and accelerated poverty reduction. The 3rd meeting of the Forum was held in Brazil on 14 - 15th April, 2010 on the occasion of the IVth IBSA Summit. The theme of the Forum this year was the impact of the global financial crisis on the lives of women in the three countries and its consequences as well as the issues and challenges related to tackling violence against women. Minister of State (Independent Charge), Smt. Krishna Tirath, led a delegation to the Forum. In her address, she called attention to the Memorandum of Understanding on cooperation in the field of women development and gender equality signed by the 3 countries at the 2nd meeting of the IBSA Women's Forum meeting in India in October 2008 and exhorted the countries to build on that foundation to promote equitable and sustainable development for women. She explained that a large proportion of women in India are from the unorganized sector and are, therefore, more vulnerable in times of economic crisis.

2.74 During the deliberations it emerged that women in all three countries were affected by the economic crisis but since their work is relatively invisible, existing statistics do not immediately show up the extent of this impact. It was also found that there were regional as well as sectoral differences in the impact on the lives of women in all three countries. All countries agreed that the global reduction of foreign trade had affected the lives of women in all 3 countries and felt that growth in the domestic market is extremely important from the point of view of women's work. Seeing these areas of commonality, it was emphasized that South-South cooperation is very important for women. At the conclusion of the two day deliberations, the Forum presented its Report at the IBSA Summit on 15th April, 2010 at which the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India was present. The Forum resolved to share expertise, experiences and progress made in fostering economic empowerment of women and gender equality; to undertake joint research initiatives on inclusive economic indicators; and to promote the inclusion of equity and gender empowerment indicators in the agreements and strategies of all IBSA Working Groups and Forum. Amongst its recommendations, the Forum called for strengthening of implementation of all ratified international instruments and protocols in accordance with the commitments of each country and, in particular, it recommended that as far as possible the benefits of welfare and developmental schemes to a household should be routed through the women as there is evidence that cash in the hands of woman is better spent on the welfare of the family. The Forum also recommended that development of gender disaggregated databases should be encouraged to facilitate planning of policies and programs targeted at improving the status of women in society.

2.75 On this occasion, the Forum released its book titled, “Towards an Inclusive Macroeconomic Framework: A South-South Feminist Approach” which it hopes will contribute to the formulation of gender sensitive macroeconomic policies. India has contributed a chapter on ‘Macroeconomics and Gender’.

Seventh South Asia Regional Ministerial Conference “Commemorating Beijing”

2.76 Secretary, Ministry of Women and Child Development led a delegation to the Seventh South Asia Ministerial Conference held at Dhaka from 3 - 5th October, 2010. Representatives from the Ministries of Panchayati Raj and External Affairs also participated. The conference focussed on violence against women and their economic security. Secretary presented India’s Country Report which highlighted the initiatives taken for socio-economic empowerment of women.

2.77 Government of Bangladesh organized a visit to the One-Stop Crisis Centre for victims of violence. The delegates got to see the success of the model where medical aid, shelter, counselling, legal assistance and police assistance were made available to the victims at one place through a well trained cadre of professionals. Delegates interacted with women who had used the services of the Centre and saw that the approach was effective in rehabilitating the victims emotionally and socially and in restoring to them their sense of dignity.

2.78 Constraints related to measurement of women’s contribution in many economic activities and need to facilitate them to shift from invisible to visible work, at the same time addressing the gaps in opportunities, wages and security as compared to men workers were discussed. It was noted that access to economic resources, while essential, does not by itself guarantee economic, social and political empowerment and equality. In this context, delegates appreciated Bhutan’s computation of a Gross National Happiness Index.

2.79 At the conclusion of the three day discussions, a resolution was adopted recognizing that while all countries of the region had made positive strides in bringing enabling legislations and translating these into strong policies, programmes and greater resource allocations to promote women’s empowerment, efforts to mainstream the principle of gender equality in development frameworks, programmes and national plans needed to be further strengthened. The countries resolved to strengthen cooperation at the regional level, identify national initiatives that impact the lives of women, undertake qualitative and quantitative research to identify specifics of the issues to be addressed, generate gender-disaggregated data in the identified initiatives and create awareness on the issues at multiple levels. For long term sustainability, all countries resolved to build capacities of critical stake-holders to respond to the nuanced needs of women in building sector specific programmes and also to conduct social/ gender audits against set indicators to measure programme effectiveness.

Convention on Elimination of all forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW)

2.80 India is in the process of preparing the combined fourth (4th) and fifth (5th) periodic report for the CEDAW Committee. Two inter-ministerial meetings were held during 2010-2011. Gaps in information were followed up with both the central and state governments. A draft Report is under preparation. In its concluding observation to India’s combined second and third periodic Report, the CEDAW Committee had requested a Follow up Report on the impact of the Gujarat incident of 2002 on Women. India had submitted this Report in July 2009. The CEDAW Committee had initially scheduled a consideration of this Report on 23rd July, 2010 at New York but at the last moment the Committee deferred it. The Report was considered by the Committee on 15th October, 2010 at Geneva. The Ministry interacted closely with the Government of Gujarat and prepared extensive supplementary material on investigation of cases as well as on relief and rehabilitation measures. A Supplementary Report was submitted to the Committee prior to its taking up the Follow-up report for consideration. The Indian delegation was headed by the Permanent Representative of India to the UN at Geneva with representation from the Ministry of Women and Child Development. The recommendations of the Committee have been received and are being examined with a view to submitting a Report along with the country's combined fourth and fifth periodic report.

SAARC Gender Info Base

2.81 SAARC Gender Info Base is a web-site containing statistical data as well as important information related to gender issues which was launched during 6th South Asia Ministerial Conference commemorating ‘Beijing Declaration’ held in New Delhi on 17th January, 2008. The three themes for SAARC Gender Info Base are Feminization of Poverty, Violence Against Women (especially trafficking) and Health Issues (including HIV). Under the three themes, there are components and, under each component, prioritized indicators are identified. The indicators are quantitative in nature. The Ministry of Women and Child Development is the nodal agency for SAARC Gender Info Base in India and is actively participating in its development. SAARC Gender Info Base (SGIB) Review Meeting in India was held from 5 - 6th April, 2010. SAARC Gender Info Base (SGIB) Focal Points meeting was held on 12-13th October, 2010 at Bhutan in which the Ministry of Women and Child Development participated.

3 | Child Development

Towards a new dawn

Child Development

3.1 Children in the age group 0-6 years constitute around 16% of the population of India. These children are the future human resource of the country. Ministry of Women and Child Development is implementing various schemes for welfare, development and protection of children. The details of the schemes and programmes undertaken for children are discussed in the succeeding paragraphs.

Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) Scheme

3.2 The Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) Scheme is one of the flagship programmes of the Government of India and represents one of the world's largest and unique programme for Early Childhood Development. It is the foremost symbol of country's commitment to its children and nursing mothers, as a response to the challenge of providing Pre-school non-formal Education on one hand and breaking the vicious cycle of malnutrition, morbidity, reduced learning capacity and mortality on the other. The beneficiaries under the Scheme are children in the age group of 0-6 years and pregnant women and lactating mothers.

The Scheme seeks :

- to improve the nutritional and health status of children in the age-group 0-6 years;
- to lay the foundation for proper psychological, physical and social development of the child;
- to reduce the incidence of mortality, morbidity, malnutrition and school dropout;
- to achieve effective co-ordination of policy and implementation amongst the various departments to promote child development; and
- to enhance the capability of the mother to look after the normal health and nutritional

- The Scheme offers a package of six services, viz.
 - i) supplementary nutrition,
 - ii) pre-school non-formal education,
 - iii) nutrition & health education,
 - iv) immunization,
 - v) health check-up and
 - vi) referral services
- The last three of the six services are related to health and are provided by Ministry/Department of Health and Family Welfare through NRHM & Health system.
- The concept of providing a package of services is based primarily on the consideration that the overall impact will be much larger if the different services develop in an integrated manner as the efficacy of a particular service depends upon the support it receives from related services.
- For better governance in the delivery of the Scheme, convergence is, therefore, one of the key features of the ICDS Scheme. This convergence is inbuilt in the Scheme which provides a platform in the form of Anganwadi Centres for providing all services under the Scheme.

needs of the child through proper nutrition and health education.

Pattern:

3.3 Prior to 2005-06, providing of Supplementary Nutrition was the responsibility of the States and administrative cost was provided by the Government of India as 100% Central Assistance. The nutrition costs were meager and coverage of the Programme in all villages/habitations were also limited and not universal. Since many States were not providing adequately for supplementary nutrition in view of resource constraints, it was decided in 2005-06, to support the States/UTs up to 50% of the financial norms or to support 50% of expenditure incurred by them on supplementary nutrition, whichever is less.

3.4 The sharing pattern of supplementary nutrition in respect of North-Eastern States between Centre and States has been changed from 50:50 to 90:10 ratio from the financial year 2009-10. For all other components of ICDS, the ratio has been modified to 90:10 against 100% Central Assistance earlier.

3.5 Population Norms for setting up of AWCs and Mini-AWCs have been revised to cover all habitations, particularly keeping in view those inhabited by SCs/STs/Minorities. The revised population norms of the ICDS Scheme are as under:

For AWCs in Rural/Urban Projects

|--------------------------------|--------|
| 400-800 | 1 AWC |
| 800-1600 | 2 AWCs |
| 1600-2400 | 3 AWCs |
| Thereafter in multiples of 800 | 1 AWC |

For Mini-AWC

|---------|------------|
| 150-400 | 1 Mini-AWC |
|---------|------------|

For Tribal/Riverine/Desert, Hilly and other difficult areas/Projects

|---------|-------|
| 300-800 | 1 AWC |
|---------|-------|

|---------|------------|
| 150-300 | 1 Mini-AWC |

Revised Supplementary Nutrition Norms

3.6 Children below six months are required to be exclusively breastfed by mothers. Supplementary Nutrition under the ICDS is primarily designed to bridge the gap between the Recommended Dietary Allowance (RDA) and the Average Daily Intake (ADI). On an average, the effort is to provide daily nutritional supplements to the extent indicated below:

| Beneficiaries | Calories (cal) | Protein (g) |
|------------------------------------|-------------------|-------------|
| Children (6-72 Months) | 500 | 12-15 |
| Severely malnourished Children | 800 | 20-25 |
| Pregnant & Lactating (P&L) Mothers | 600 | 18-20 |

3.7 Financial Norms of Supplementary Nutrition have been revised with effect from 24th February, 2009 and are given below:

| Category | Rates (per day) |
|--|------------------------|
| (i) Children (6 months to 72 months) | ₹ 4.00 per child |
| (ii) Severely malnourished children (6 months-72 months) | ₹ 6.00 per child |
| (iii) Pregnant women and Nursing mothers | ₹ 5.00 per beneficiary |

3.8 Having recognized the fact that the AWC as the platform of ICDS is the focal point of service delivery relating to health, nutrition and education, there has been upward revision in financial norms and nutritional norms of supplementary nutrition and enhancement in the honoraria of Anganwadi Workers and Helpers. Under the revised nutritional and feeding norms for Supplementary Nutrition, State Governments/UTs have been directed to serve more than one meal to the children who come to AWCs which include providing a morning snack in the form of milk/ banana/ egg/ seasonal fruits/ micro-nutrient fortified food, followed by a Hot Cooked Meal. For children below 3 years of age and pregnant and lactating women, appropriate Take Home Ration (THR) is to be provided. Besides, for severely underweight children in the age group of 6 months to 6 years, States/UTs have been advised to give additional food items in the form of micro-nutrient fortified food and/or energy dense food as THR. These norms have also been endorsed by the Apex Court in their Order dated 22nd April, 2009.

Registration of beneficiaries:

3.9 The Scheme is universal in coverage. All 0-6 years children and pregnant women and lactating mothers are eligible for availing of the services under ICDS.

Training & Capacity Building

3.13 Achievement of the ICDS programme goals depends upon the effectiveness of frontline workers in improved delivery of packages under ICDS. The importance of training and continuous capacity building of the ICDS functionaries in ICDS is well recognized as vital for success of the programme.

State Training Action Plans (STRAPs):

3.14 Under the ICDS training programme, all States/UTs are required to submit State Training Action Plans (STRAPs) delineating details of all types of training programmes for various ICDS functionaries that are to be taken up during the financial year. During 2010-11, STRAPs were received from 31 States/UTs and the same were approved for an estimated cost of ₹ 143.34 crore under regular training (induction, job and refresher) and ₹ 4.72 crore under the ‘other training’ component.

Infrastructure for ICDS Training:

3.15 Training programmes for various field functionaries in ICDS are organized through:
(i) Anganwadi Workers Training Centres

(AWTCs) for the training of Anganwadi Workers and Helpers; (ii) Middle Level Training Centres (MLTCs) for the training of Supervisors and Instructors of AWTCs; (iii) State Training Institute for the training of Instructors of MLTCs and CDPOs/ACDPOs in Tamil Nadu and (iv) National Institute of Public Cooperation and Child Development (NIPCCD) and its four Regional Centres (in Guwahati, Lucknow, Bangalore and Indore) for training of CDPOs/ACDPOs and Instructors of MLTCs. As on 31st December 2010, a total of 498 AWTCs (386 run by NGOs) and 28 MLTCs (17 run by NGOs) were operational across States/UTs. State-wise operational AWTCs and MLTCs are at Annex -XIX.

Physical Progress:

3.16 Till 31st December 2010, a total of 56,718 AWWs (45% of STRAP target), 1,589 Supervisors (36.4% of target) and 33,815 AWHs (37% of target) were reported to have received job training. Also, 101,272 AWWs (76% of STRAP target), 4,131 Supervisors (53%) and 107,892 AWHs (71.5%) were given refresher training during the same period.

Children in an Anganwadi Center - Learning by Play-way Method

Financial Status:

3.17 Against a budgetary allocation of ₹ 100 crore for the ICDS training programme during 2010-11, an amount of ₹ 76.76 crore was released to the States/UTs till 7th Feb 2011. Also, unspent balance for an amount of ₹ 13.42 crore, out of the funds released during 2009-10, has been revaluated for utilization during 2010-11.

Monitoring & Supervision of ICDS Training Programme:

3.18 Periodical review of implementation progress of STRAPs is undertaken by MWCD with the States/UTs. In June and October, 2010, issues relating to ICDS Training were discussed during MWCD's meetings with State Secretaries. In addition, States/UTs have been advised to take measures for strengthening monitoring and supervision of the training programme.

Reforming the Training System:

3.19 A process of consultations with the States and other stakeholders has been initiated by the Ministry to review and identify gaps in the existing training system and also solicit suggestions to strengthen the same including revision of training contents/syllabi, improving training methodology and the existing monitoring mechanism. In this regard, a national workshop was organized on 16th December, 2010 in collaboration with USAID and CARE to discuss and disseminate the recommendations of the three regional workshops that were held in 2009 and for developing a road map for completing the activities. The learning would be incorporated in improving the training content, duration, strategy etc.

Management Information System

Details of Monitoring Mechanism at various levels are indicated below:

Central Level

3.20 Ministry of Women and Child Development (MWCD) has the overall responsibility of monitoring the ICDS scheme. There exists a Central Level ICDS Monitoring Unit in the Ministry which is responsible for collection and analysis of the periodic work reports received from the States in the prescribed formats. States have been asked to send the State level consolidated reports by 17th day of the following month.

3.21 The information received in the prescribed formats is compiled, processed and analysed at the Central level on quarterly basis. The progress and shortfalls indicated in the reports on ICDS are reviewed by the Ministry with the State Governments regularly by review meetings/letters.

State Level

3.22 Quantitative inputs captured through CDPO's MPR/ HPR are compiled at the State level for all Projects in the State. CDPO's MPR capture information on number of beneficiaries for supplementary nutrition, pre-school education, field visit to AWCs by ICDS functionaries like Supervisors, CDPO/ ACDPO etc., information on number of meeting on Nutrition and Health Education (NHED) and vacancy position of ICDS functionaries etc.

Block Level

3.23 At block level, Child Development Project Officer (CDPO) is in-charge of an ICDS Project. The CDPO's MPR/ HPR formats have one-to-one correspondence with AWW's MPR/ HPR. CDPO's MPR indicates vacancy position of ICDS functionaries at block and AWC levels. In between CDPO and AWW, there is a Supervisor who is required to supervise 25 AWC, on an average. CDPO is required to send the Monthly Progress Report (MPR) by 7th day of the following month to State Government. Similarly, CDPO is required to send Half-yearly Progress Report (HPR) to State by 7th April and 7th October every year.

Village Level (Anganwadi Level)

3.24 At the grass-root level, delivery of various services to target groups is given at the Anganwadi Centre (AWC). An AWC is managed by an honorary Anganwadi Worker (AWW) and an honorary Anganwadi Helper (AWH).

Key features of the revised MIS Formats

- a. Changes and rationalization in the registers kept at AWCs;
 - Separation of Supplementary Nutrition (SN) and PSE registers
 - Standardized SN stock register format
 - Separate register for vitamin A biannual rounds
 - Separate register to enable planning and conduct of inter-personal communication with families of mothers and children at critical life-cycle points
 - Separate register designed to facilitate monthly and annual summaries
- b. Methodical and universal name-based tracking: Enumerate entire population, track every single pregnant woman and child, using family and individual serial numbers / UID
- c. Rationalized content (column headers): Ensure information needs of AWW as well as needs of reports, and ensure minimization / elimination of inessentials
- d. Simplification of summaries: Elimination of tally marking for cross tabulation
- e. Non-residents (temporary residents) included in service registers: with separate reports for permanent and temporary residents
- f. Use of true denominators ensured for most reported indicators; population denominators generated only once a year
- g. Size of MPR/Annual reports reduced
- h. MPRs now have substantial sections to be used locally, not reported upwards
- i. MPR/Annual reports have value-additions from each level
- j. Methodical and universal name-based tracking: Enumerate entire population, track every single pregnant woman and child, using family and individual serial numbers / UID
- k. Rationalized content (column headers) Ensure information needs of AWW as well as needs of reports, and ensure minimization / elimination of inessentials
- l. Simplification of summaries: Elimination of tally marking for cross tabulation
- m. Non-residents (temporary residents) included in service registers: with separate reports for permanent and temporary residents

3.25 In the existing Management Information System, records and registers are prescribed at the Anganwadi level i.e. at village level. The Monthly and Half-yearly Progress Reports of Anganwadi Worker have also been prescribed. The monthly progress report of AWW capture information on population details, births and deaths of children, maternal deaths, number of children attended AWC for supplementary nutrition and pre-school education, nutritional status of children by weight for age, information on nutrition and health education and home visits by AWW. Similarly, AWW's Half-yearly Progress Report capture data on literacy standard of AWW, training details of AWW, increase/decrease in weight of children, details on space for storing ration at AWC, availability of health cards, availability of registers, availability of growth charts, etc.

3.26 AWW is required to send the Monthly Progress Reports (MPRs) by 5th day of the following month to CDPO in-charge of an ICDS Project. Similarly, AWW is required to send Half-yearly Progress Report (HPR) to CDPO by 5th April and 5th October every year.

Note: Details of various circulars/ orders on monitoring/ MIS issued from GOI and existing Management Information System (MIS) on ICDS are given at 'Child Development' portion of the web-site of the Ministry viz. www.wcd.nic.in

Revised MIS and Supervision Guidelines

3.27 Steps have been taken to revamp the existing Management Information System (MIS) of the ICDS Programme to ensure consistent and accurate recording and reporting of critical programme implementation data, as also to minimize efforts of the AWWs and other functionaries.

3.28 A National Consultation was held on 16th December, 2010 in New Delhi to disseminate the revised MIS. Based on the field testing, final versions of the new formats for AWC registers and reports are expected to be ready by February, 2011. It is expected that the revised MIS formats will be rolled out in the States starting from April, 2011. A detailed planning for design, translation, production/printing of the revised formats, regional consultations, orientation programmes, distribution etc. is being worked out and will be shared with the States shortly.

3.29 Concurrently, the Ministry of Women and Child Development is also working with the National Informatics Center (NIC) for developing a web-enabled MIS which will help data entry up to the district/block level, compilation and generation of reports at different levels. By the time the States are fully ready with the new registers and reporting formats, the web-based MIS is expected to be ready to help the States to enter the monitoring data electronically from the block/district level, wherever feasible and generate reports.

3.30 Guidelines for monitoring and supervision visits to ICDS Blocks and AWCs by officials of State and Central Governments have been circulated to all the States / UTs vide Ministry's letter No. 16-3/2004-ME (Pt.) dated 22nd October, 2010.

3.31 During 2010-11, field visits to various States have been undertaken by the Minister of State (Independent charge), Women and Child Development, Secretary and other Officers of the Ministry to review the implementation of ICDS. Based on the review meetings with States/UTs and field visits to States, the following deficiencies have come to notice:

- Slow operationalisation of Projects/AWCs/ mini-AWCs;
- Large number of vacancies of CDPOs, Supervisors and Anganwadi Workers/ Helpers;
- Non-adherence to SNP norms;
- Disruptions in providing hot cooked meal and THR; consequently number of days was less than 25 days per month in many States.
- Review and monitoring of actual number of SNP beneficiaries (children below 3 years and P&LM) and children in the age group of 3-6 years;

Shri D.K. Sikri, Secretary, MWCD, interacting with women beneficiaries on a visit to ICDS programme in Haryana.

- Anganwadi Workers, Supervisors and the ICDS functionaries given to perform non-ICDS work in the State resulting in disruption and deficiency of services impacting adversely implementation of the ICDS Scheme.

The above observations have been conveyed to the respective States/UTs for taking the remedial action.

Introduction of New WHO Child Growth Standards in ICDS

3.32 The new WHO standards, globally used, prescribe how children should grow with optimal nutrition and health care. These child growth standards recognize the breastfed infant as the normative model, provide reference values for assessing childhood obesity, and also the link between physical growth and motor development. These standards are available for both, girls and boys, below five years for Weight-for-age, Weight-for-height, BMI-for-age and for six motor development indicators. With these new standards, parents, communities, child care workers, programme managers, health and care advocates will know when the nutrition and care needs of children are being compromised. The use of this tool enables them to take timely corrective action at different levels.

3.33 The ICDS since its inception had been using Harvard standards for the purpose of monitoring growth among children. The Government of India decided in 2008 to introduce the new WHO Growth standards through ICDS and NRHM. The NFHS-3 Report has also incorporated the new growth standards and brought out the revised levels of malnutrition according to which the average level of malnutrition in the country is 42.5% and severely underweight children are 15.8 %.

Joint Mother & Child Protection Card

3.34 A joint mother and child protection card (MCP) has been devised in consultation with the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare for wider distribution among all beneficiaries of ICDS. This card will provide useful information on growth monitoring of children and is a significant step towards convergence with Ministry of Women and Child Development and Ministry of Health and Family Welfare. Besides, it has IEC template and can be used as tool to monitor services.

AWC Infrastructure

3.35 It is necessary that Anganwadi Centre is consolidated as the first village/habitation post for health, nutrition and early learning centre or platform on which the two new Schemes of SABLA and IGMSY are also being implemented. The ICDS Scheme does not provide for construction of AWC buildings except in the North Eastern States. Out of 55281 sanctioned AWC buildings in NE States, 31629 AWC buildings have been constructed so far.

3.36 States have been requested to tap the funds for this from various schemes such as MPLADs, MLALADS, BRGF, RIDF, Panchayati Raj, NREGA and Tribal Affairs, MSDP of Multi-Sectoral Development Programme of Ministry of Minority Affairs (MoMA), under SSA, Finance Commission, Additional Central Assistance under State Plan, Integrated Action Plan for Left Wing Extremism (LWE) districts, etc.

3.37 About 10% AWC buildings have been constructed with assistance from various schemes like MPLADs (562 AWCs), MLALADS (1093 AWCs), Rural Infrastructure Development Fund (8744 AWCs), Backward Region Grant Fund of Panchayati Raj (24582 AWCs), MoMA (23160 AWCs), Tribal Development (331 AWCs), NREGA (439 AWCs), State Plan (16857 AWCs), etc.

3.38 States like Andhra Pradesh, Kerala, Chhattisgarh, Rajasthan, Haryana etc. have, of late, developed model AWCs with 2-3 rooms including space for ANC, washing area, toilet, proper storage, kitchen and other attendant facilities. This is indeed a progressive step towards better implementation of ICDS.

As per information available in respect of 10,47,395 AWCs in 32 States/ UTs, status of AWC infrastructure is as follows:

- 80.13% AWCs are running from pucca buildings including rented AWC buildings. Of them 28% AWC are in Government own building, 19% in school premises, 12% in community buildings. About 37% are in rented buildings;
- 37.47% AWCs/ mini-AWCs are running from rented buildings (pucca & kutch);
- 51.87% AWCs have drinking water facilities;
- 41.54% AWCs have toilet facilities;
- 25.71% AWCs have separate kitchen.

Construction of AWCs under Multi-Sectoral Development Programme

3.39 The Ministry of Minority Affairs (MoMA) identified 90 minority concentration districts (MCDs) in the country, which were backward in basic amenities and socio-economic parameters, in 2007-08. A multi-sectoral development programme (MSDP) to address the ‘development deficits’ specially in education, skill development, employment, sanitation, housing, drinking water and electricity supply was launched from 2008-09 for these minority concentration districts. Baseline surveys to identify ‘development deficits’ have been carried out in all the districts by Ministry of Minority Affairs.

3.40 MoMA has identified the construction of AWCs in identified 90 districts as one of the development deficits. There is no provision for construction of AWCs under schematic norms of ICDS Scheme. Keeping in view the special emphasis on North Eastern (NE) States, MWCD had approved the construction of AWCs in NE States for ₹ 1.75 lakh each. However, as convergence with other Ministries/ Departments is an inherent component of ICDS, the Ministry of Women and Child Development supported construction of AWCs under MSDP in minority concentration Districts with a unit cost upto ₹ 3.00 lakh with the condition that each AWC should include kitchen, storage and playing area. The construction of 25,513 AWCs based on the District Plans have already been approved by MoMA in minority concentration districts in 17 States/UTs.

Strengthening and restructuring of ICDS

3.41 There are programmatic and operational gaps in ICDS which necessitate strengthening and restructuring of ICDS. This is a long felt need and has been acknowledged so in the XI Five Year Plan 2007-2012 and Mid Term Appraisal (MTA) of the XI Plan. Recently, during a meeting held on 24th November, 2010, the Prime Minister’s National Council on India’s Nutrition Challenges, inter-alia, decided as under :

‘Strengthen and restructure the ICDS scheme with special focus on pregnant and lactating mothers and children under three along with strong institutional convergence with National Rural Health Mission and Total Sanitation Campaign particularly at district and village level. Provide for flexibility for local action and empower mothers and community to have a stake in the programme’.

3.42 As an initiative to improve planning, management and delivery of services, Government has decided to introduce Annual Programme Implementation Plan (APIP) from 2011-12. A letter along with the APIP Framework has been sent to States/UTs to this effect. APIPs have been introduced with a view to strengthen planning, programme management, implementation and monitoring. This would help acknowledge and capture the diversity across the States and develop State specific strategies/interventions which on stabilization lead to a Mission mode in ICDS.

Proposed World Bank assisted “ICDS Systems Strengthening & Nutrition Improvement Project (ISSNIP)”

3.43 After the closure of the erstwhile World Bank assisted ICDS-III/WCD Project (1999-2006), the Ministry initiated formulation of a follow-up project titled, “ICDS Systems Strengthening and Nutrition Improvement Project” (originally called as ‘ICDS-IV’ Project) for negotiation with the World Bank to seek financial assistance from the International Development Association (IDA). The DEA had earmarked an amount of US$ 450 million of IDA assistance to the proposed project. The project is proposed to be implemented in 162 districts having higher proportion of child under-nutrition across 8 States (Bihar, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand, Madhya Pradesh, Maharashtra, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh and Andhra Pradesh). The project has been designed to facilitate strengthening the ICDS systems for effective programme implementation in selected States/districts as well as to allow the States/districts to experiment, innovate and conduct pilots of potentially more effective approaches for ICDS to achieve concrete programme outcomes. It will be implemented in two distinct phases- an initial preparatory/formative phase of 3 years (Phase 1) with clearly defined benchmarks, followed by a 4-5 year full-scale implementation phase (Phase 2) upon meeting of the agreed benchmarks. The project has four major components during Phase 1, viz. (a) Institutional and Systems Strengthening in ICDS (b) Community Mobilization & BCC, (c) Piloting Convergent Nutrition Actions (pilot) and (d) Project Management and Monitoring & Evaluation.

3.44 During 2010-11, three IDA Missions visited the Ministry, including a Technical Appraisal Mission from 13 - 22nd December 2010 to discuss and reach agreement on project development objectives, results framework, project components and activities, fiduciary aspects of the project and costing of activities. Discussions were also held with the selected States on the project issues. Based on State Project Implementation Plans (PIP) and discussions with the Word Bank Missions, a central PIP has been prepared with technical support from the DFID and USAID/CARE. The Ministry is in the process of expediting the approval of the project by the competent authority. It is expected that project will be formally negotiated sometimes during April, 2011 and will be made effective sometimes during mid 2011-12. An amount of ₹ 90.00 crore has been kept under RE 2010-11 for the project.

Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE)

3.45 There is a felt need for a comprehensive National Policy, Curricular Framework, Standards and other aspects that require urgent attention in the field of ECCE. The Ministry of Women and Child Development has constituted a Core Committee to address these needs. Four Regional Consultations seeking views of State Governments have already been held. A draft ECCE Policy Paper along with other facets is under preparation.

Innovations and Potential Best Practices in ICDS

3.46 In the implementation of ICDS, different States have adopted innovative approaches to enhance the effectiveness of their efforts. Similarly, different development partner organizations have supported such initiatives and several initiatives are implemented for a considerable period of time at a significant scale. Based on the experiences of implementers, quantitative and qualitative evaluations conducted by supporting agencies, many of these initiatives are considered as effective approaches and are often referred to as either potential / promising practices or as best practices.

3.47 Some of the projects of development agencies, like UNICEF, World Bank and CARE consist of 'Integrated Packages' of interventions to strengthen ICDS implementation. An attempt is made to draw best practices from these projects, some of which are listed in the following matrix.

3.48 While many of these projects/programs listed in the above table have been evaluated with pre-post surveys, effectiveness of individual components (the potential best practices listed below) is often not measured separately. Potential best practices emerging from these projects as well as other newer initiatives like Vistaar project of USAID are organized under different categories as at Annex-XX.

| Name of the Project | Location and Supporting Agency |
|--|---|
| Andhra Pradesh Economic Restructuring Project (APERP) | Andhra Pradesh - World Bank (1999-2005) |
| Anchal Se Angan Tak (ASAT) | Rajasthan - UNICEF (2001-2006) |

| Positive Deviance (PD) | Multiple States - UNICEF (ongoing in some States) |
| Integrated Nutrition and Health Project (INHP) | 8 States - CARE/ USAID (1996-2010) |
| Tamil Nadu Integrated Nutrition Program (TINP) 1 and 2 | Tamil Nadu (TINP 1 - 1980-89; TINP 2 - 1990-97) - World Bank |

Development Partners

3.49 Several international agencies/development partners provide technical support to ICDS programme both at the State and Central level. Some of them are given below:

- UNICEF: Providing technical and material support to ICDS at the Central and State levels under the GOI-Country Programme Action Plan (2008-12).

- USAID and CARE India: CARE India has implemented USAID supported Integrated Nutrition & Health Project (INHP) across eight States. The program ended on 31st December 2010. Also, supporting GOI in capacity building, MIS and health awareness among people.
- WFP(World Food Programme): Extending assistance to some State Governments to produce low cost micronutrient fortified food known as 'India mix' and technical support.

A glimpse of Angawadis in Haryana.

- DFID (Department for International Development, Govt. of UK): Providing technical assistance to ICDS in three States (Orissa, MP and Bihar) and also at the central level.

Wheat Based Nutrition Programme (WBNP)

3.50 Food grains (wheat & rice) are also allocated by Department of Food & Public Distribution at BPL rates for allocation to the States/UTs. Food-grains allocated under the Scheme are used for preparation of supplementary nutrition to the beneficiaries of the Integrated Child Development Services (ICDS) Scheme. During 2010-11, Department of Food & Public Distribution has allocated 9 lakh MTs of Wheat and 6 lakh MTs of Rice out of which 8.12 lakh MTs of Wheat and 4.51 lakh MTs of Rice have been allocated by this Ministry to various States/UTs (as on 31st January, 2011). Quarter-wise allocation of food grains to States/ UTs are available on the website of the Ministry.

Anganwadi Karyakartri Bima Yojana (AKBY)

3.51 The ICDS Scheme envisages Anganwadi Workers (AWWs) and Anganwadi Helpers (AWHs) as honorary workers who are paid a monthly honorarium. AKBY, under the LIC's Social Security Scheme, is one of the welfare measures extended to the grassroot functionaries of the ICDS Scheme.

3.52 The Government of India has introduced the Anganwadi Karyakartri Bima Yojana with effect from 1st April, 2004. The premium under the scheme is ₹ 280/- per annum per member out of which ₹ 100/- is paid by LIC from Social Security Fund, ₹ 100/- by the Government of India and ₹ 80/- by the Anganwadi Worker/Helper (insured member). The premium of ₹ 80/- payable by these workers has, however, been waived off with effect from 1st April, 2007.

3.53 The salient features of this Bima Yojana are as under:-

A malignant tumor characterized by uncontrolled growth and spread of malignant cells and invasion of tissue that originates in one of the above anatomical sites is covered under the Scheme.

Shiksha Sahayog

3.55 A free add-on scholarship benefit is available for the children of the members who are covered under the Scheme. Scholarship of ₹ 300/- per quarter for students in 9th to 12th standard (including ITI courses) would be provided. Scholarship is limited to two children per family.

3.56 With the waiver of ₹ 80/- as premium payable towards critical illness by the Anganwadi Workers (AWWs) and Helpers (AWHs) with effect from 1st April, 2007, all AWWs and AWHs are covered for all the benefits under the Scheme.

4 | Child Protection and Welfare

Towards a new dawn

CHILD PROTECTION AND WELFARE

4.1 India is home to almost 19% of the world's children. More than one third of the country's population, around 440 million, is below 18 years. The strength of the nation lies in having healthy, protected, educated and well-developed children who may grow up to be productive citizens of the country. It is estimated that around 170 million or 40 per cent of India's children are vulnerable or experiencing difficult circumstances characterized by their specific social, economic and geo-political situations. All these children need special attention.

Laws, Policy and Programmes for Care and Protection of Children

4.2 Ensuring the rights and entitlements of the country's children is part of the mandate of Ministry of Women and Child development. To bring a rights based perspective to policy, planning and programming for children, the National Policy for Children, adopted on 22nd August, 1974, is being reviewed. The Ministry of Women and Child Development has held five Regional Consultations across the country between September, 2010 and January, 2011 to collate comments, views, suggestions and inputs from the stakeholders on the contents of a new policy for children in the changed environment. The consultations included participants from concerned Ministries / Departments from States/UTs, civil society organizations, independent experts, government/NGOs and academicians.

National Commission for Protection of the Child Rights

4.3 The National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR), was set up in March, 2007 under the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights Act, 2005. The Commission's mandate is to ensure that all laws, policies, programmes, and administrative mechanisms are in consonance with the child rights perspective as enshrined in the Constitution of India and also the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (More details on NCPCR are given in chapter on 'National Commission for Protection of the Child Rights').

The Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children) Act [JJ Act]

4.4 The Juvenile Justice (Care & Protection of Children) Act, enacted in 2000, is the primary law in the country relating to welfare of juveniles in conflict with law as well as children in need of care and protection and defines the 'child' as a person below eighteen years of age. The Act provides for proper care, protection and treatment for such children by catering to their development needs and by adopting a child friendly approach in dealing with matters in the best interest of children. The Act lays emphasis on rehabilitation and reintegration of such children into the society through various processes. For this, the Act provides for several alternatives such as adoption, sponsorship, foster care and institutional care.

4.5 The JJ Act was amended, in 2006, to make it more effective by providing time-lines for setting up of Juvenile Justice Boards and Child Welfare Committees and compulsory registration of Child Care Institutions, etc. The scope of the Act was also widened to include working children, children living on the streets, those found begging, etc.

4.6 In keeping with the JJ Act, the State Governments are required to set up and maintain either by themselves or in association with NGOs - Homes, shelters and other services like adoption, foster care etc., of various types for children in every district or group of districts, for their care, treatment, training, development and rehabilitation.

Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Bill

4.7 Sexual offences against children are inadequately addressed by extant legislation. A large number of sexual offences are neither specifically provided for nor are they penalized. This impacts on the confidence of the public in the criminal justice delivery system, which, as it is, is more geared to dealing with crime against adults. A Bill on Protection of Children from Sexual Offences has been prepared by the Ministry after extensive consultations with all stakeholders to address issues relating to sexual abuse of children. The main aim of the Bill is to protect children from sexual abuse and exploitation, including child pornography.

It regards the best interest and well being of the child as of prime importance at every stage of the judicial process and incorporates child friendly procedures for reporting, recording, investigating and trial of offences.

4.8 The Bill incorporates clear definition and description of offences. Penalties have been graded as per gravity of the offence. The Bill also provides for higher punishment for aggravated situations, including commission of an offence by a person in a position of trust or authority of a child. The Bill provides for establishment of special courts for speedy trial of offences. The passing of the Bill would contribute to enforcement of the right of all children to safety, security and protection from abuse and exploitation.

Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS)

4.9 The implementation of the JJ Act faced several teething problems and the pace of implementation was affected by lack of focus on child protection in the States/UTs, absence of dedicated structures for implementation of the Act, and shortage of financial resources.

Smt. Krishna Tirath, Hon'ble MOS(I/C), MWCD with Shri D.K. Sikri, Secretary, MWCD and other officers of the Ministry in 'Conference of State Ministers' held on 28th January 2011 in Delhi.

State Ministers of WCD and other State representatives attending ‘Conference of State Ministers’ held on 28th January 2011 by MWCD in Delhi.

Intervention of the Central Government, in terms of allocation of resources, was also negligible. As a consequence, the structures envisaged under the Act could not be established in the required numbers and standards of care were not of desired quality.

4.10 To encourage quicker establishment of structures and procedures under the Act, the Ministry of Women & Child Development introduced, in 2009-10, a comprehensive scheme, namely, the Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS) under which financial and technical support is provided to the State Governments/UT Administrations. ICPS brings several existing child protection programmes, under one umbrella, with improved norms. These include, (i) A Programme for Juvenile Justice; (ii) An Integrated Programme for Street Children; and (iii) Scheme for Assistance to Homes [Shishu Greh] to promote In-country Adoption. A number of new initiatives have also been incorporated, such as dedicated service delivery structures at State and district levels, child tracking system, sponsorship, fostercare etc.

4.11 Objectives : The objectives of the scheme are to contribute to the improvement in the well being of children in difficult circumstances, as well as to the reduction of vulnerabilities to situations and actions that lead to abuse, neglect, exploitation, abandonment and separation of children from their families. These will be achieved by; i) improved access to and quality of child protection services; (ii) increased public awareness about the reality of child rights, situation and protection in India; (iii) clearly articulated responsibilities and enforced accountability of these responsibilities for child protection (iv) established and functioning structures at all government levels for delivery of statutory and support services to children in difficult circumstances; (v) evidence based monitoring and evaluation system.

4.12 Target Group: ICPS focuses its activities on -

- Children in need of care and protection as listed in the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection Act) 2000
- Children in conflict with law; who are alleged to have committed an offence
- Children in contact with law; who have come into contact with the law as a victim, witness or under any other circumstance
- Any other vulnerable child (including but not limited to) - children of migrant families, children living on the streets, child beggars, exploited/trafficked/ drug-affected children, children of prisoners, children of women in prostitution and children affected/infected with HIV/ AIDS

4.13 Major Components: The services that are strengthened/introduced and provided finances for, under ICPS:

- a. Institutional Services: Shelter Homes; Children's Homes; Observation Homes; Special Homes; and Specialized services for children with special needs
- b. Service delivery structures for the above services at Central, State and District levels
- c. Emergency outreach services for children in difficult circumstances through Childline
- d. Open shelters for children in need in urban and semi-urban areas
- e. Family based non institutional care through: Sponsorship; Foster Care; Adoption; and After Care Programme
- f. Child Tracking System including a website for missing children
- g. Advocacy, public education and communication
- h. Training and capacity building
- i. General grant-in-aid for need based/ innovative interventions

4.14 Cost Sharing Ratio: The Scheme is being implemented through the State Governments / Union Territory Administrations and the expenditure sharing ratio between the Centre and the States/NGOs is as below:

- a. 90:10 for all the scheme components for the States of the North East and Jammu & Kashmir
- b. 90:10 for all the scheme components with NGO participation
- c. 100% funding by the Centre to the Childline services

- d. 100% funding by the Centre to NIPCCD and its Regional Centres, Central Adoption Resource Agency, Central Project Support Unit, and State Project Support Units
- e. 35:65 for the States other than the North East and Jammu & Kashmir, for the statutory bodies provided under the Juvenile Justice Act, i.e., Juvenile Justice Boards and Child Welfare Committees
- f. 75:25 for other structural components in the States other than the North East and Jammu & Kashmir.

Status of Implementation :

4.15 States Brought On Board: ICPS is implemented mainly through the State Governments/UT Administrations and signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the Government of India and the respective State Governments/UTs is a prerequisite for implementation of the scheme. In 2010-11, 16 States/UTs have signed the MOU, thus taking the total number to 33. Jammu & Kashmir and Andaman & Nicobar Islands are the only States/UTs which are yet to sign the MOU.

4.16 Until the introduction of the scheme, child protection was not such a priority for the States/ UT Administrations. The introduction of ICPS has been a catalyst in generating interest, both in the Government sector as well as the voluntary sector. States/UTs are now endeavouring to build a perspective, which was not done so far, on the requirement of child protection services in coordination with the civil society, and in convergence with other departments like Education, Labour and Health.

4.17 Statutory & Service Delivery Structures: Considerable progress has been made under ICPS in establishing statutory bodies. 494 Child Welfare Committees (240 before introduction of the Scheme) and 511 Juvenile Justice Boards (211 before introduction of ICPS) have so far been established all over the country. To ensure that proper focus is maintained on child protection, and quality of services is up to the mark, the Scheme envisages creating a service delivery network, exclusively for child protection, which would cover the entire country. So far, assistance has been provided for setting up and maintenance of 18 State Child Protection Societies, 19 State Project Support Units, 46 State Adoption Resource Agencies and 326 District Child Protection Units, employing a total of about 4300 staff dedicated to protection of children. This figure is likely to double once the scheme is implemented all over the country.

Status of Integrated Child Protection Scheme [ICPS]

| Year | No. of States that have signed MOUs | Budget Allocation (in ₹ Cr.) | Amount sanctioned (in ₹ Cr.) | Number of beneficiaries |
|---|-------------------------------------|------------------------------|------------------------------|-------------------------|
| 2009-10 | 17 | BE- 60 RE - 50 | 42.63 | 36,780 |
| 2010-11 (up to 28 th February, 2011) | 33 | BE -300 RE-100 | 91.52 | 92,379 |

4.18 Rehabilitation & Reintegration Services : So far, in 2010-11, under the Scheme, 132 Specialised Adoption Agencies and 1183 Homes of various types have been funded. These provide comprehensive rehabilitation services to children including food, clothing, day and night shelter, education, medical facilities, etc. to 76,759 children. For improving the quality of infrastructure in the Homes, assistance has been provided this year for upgradation of 159 Homes. Grants for construction of 15 new Homes have been released for uncovered areas. Further, 98 open shelters have also been funded under ICPS which provide, inter alia, bridge education, vocational training, food, etc. to children living on the streets.

Training Programme for DSWOs in Orissa on launching of Integrated Child Protection Scheme.

4.19 Utilisation of Budget : In the current financial year, proposals of 21 States/UTs and Childline India Foundation have been considered by the inter-ministerial Project Approval Board (PAB), set up for appraisal and approval of the financial proposals received under the Scheme. In 2010-11, ₹ 91.52 crores have been sanctioned under the Scheme as against the previous year's expenditure of ₹ 42.63 cr. State-wise details of expenditure are at Annex-XXI. The budget allocation of ₹ 300.00 crores for the year was reduced to ₹ 100.00 crores at RE stage, looking to the trend of expenditure - which is picking up now - as the State Governments were taking time for the due diligence required for assessing their needs and planning commensurate services, resulting in a time lag of 6-8 months between signing of MoU and submission of financial proposals.

4.20 Sensitisation of State Functionaries: As, ICPS is a new scheme with several components, hand-holding of the State Government functionaries will be required to ensure its implementation in letter and spirit. In addition to State/UTs specific meetings held during the year, the Ministry organized 5 Regional consultations/ interactions with State Governments/UTs to sensitize them, besides providing solutions to issues, sharing experiences and best practices. Three subject specific consultations were also held during the year to discuss the modalities of implementation of some of the new components of the Scheme, namely, sponsorship, foster care, child tracking system and monitoring.

Childline Services

4.21 Childline is a 24-hour toll free emergency outreach telephone service (1098) for children in distress, being run by the Ministry through a mother NGO - Childline India Foundation (CIF). Any child requiring assistance, or adults on their behalf, can call the service for help. Childline personnel reach out to the child and provide necessary assistance through linkages with hospitals, Child Welfare Committees, shelter Homes, police etc. This service started in 1996 with one location, i.e., Mumbai, and by 2007-08 the number had risen gradually to 83 locations.

4.22 Under ICPS, the Ministry has undertaken expansion of the service to other parts of the country, with the final objective of covering all the districts in the XII five year Plan period. In the current year ₹ 17.89 crores have been sanctioned to CIF for running the service. The Ministry has approved partner organisations for 105 new locations. Childlines have started functioning in 20 new locations this year and with this, the service is now available in 103 cities indicated at Annex - XXII. CIF is partnering with 229 organizations for running these Childline projects in 26 States and 3 UTs. The service is likely to start in 14 more cities / districts this year, bringing the total to 117.

4.23 So far, Childline has received 15.47 lakh calls this year. A majority of these have been for shelter, medical assistance, protection from abuse, emotional support and guidance, information regarding referral services and missing children.

Scheme for Welfare of Working Children in Need of Care and Protection

4.24 Objective : The objective of the scheme is to provide opportunities for non formal education and vocational training to working children to facilitate their entry/re-entry into mainstream education in cases where they have either not attended any learning system or where, for some reasons, their education has been discontinued. The Scheme lends support to projects only in urban areas and does not support projects in areas covered by the existing schemes of the Ministry of Labour & Employment.

4.25 Target Group : This Scheme provides support for the holistic development of child workers and potential child workers especially those with none or ineffective family support such as children of slum/pavement dwellers/drug addicts, children living on railway platforms/ along railway lines, children working in shops, dhabas, mechanic shops, children engaged as domestic workers, children whose parents are in jail, children of migrant/sex workers, leprosy patients, etc.

4.26 Components : The programme components are:

a) Facilitating introduction and / or return to the mainstream education system as children at study are not children at work

b) Counseling of parents, heads of families, relatives of the children so as to prevent their exploitation, and

c) Vocational training wherever necessary.

4.27 The Scheme is run through the voluntary sector and Non Governmental Organizations are eligible for financial assistance to set up composite centers under this scheme. The Ministry provides 90 per cent financial assistance and the concerned organization is required to bear 10 per cent of the expenditure on the project as per the norms of the scheme. The budget allocation for the current financial year under this scheme is ₹ 12.50 crore and ₹ 7.90 crores have been sanctioned so far for 99 projects, benefiting 9,900 children. Grant-in-aid released under the Scheme during 2009-10 and 2010-11 are at Annex-XXIII & XXIV.

| | 2009-10 | 2010-11 (up to 28th February, 2011) |

| No. of Beneficiaries | 10700 | 9,900 |
| Total amount sanctioned | ₹ 9.51 Crore | ₹ 7.90 Crores |

4.28 An evaluation of the scheme was conducted by NIPCCD during the year 2009-10. The Scheme was largely found to be achieving desired results of mainstreaming the beneficiary children. However, subsequent to the evaluation, a Committee was set up in the Ministry to suggest changes in the scheme, based on the outcomes on the evaluation. The Committee has recommended that, as the Open Shelter component of the Ministry's newly introduced scheme, Integrated Child Protection Scheme, provides similar services under its Open Shelter component, albeit with better norms and procedures, the projects under the Scheme for Welfare of Working Children be covered under ICPS and this scheme be phased out. No new projects are, therefore, being considered under the Scheme.

Rajiv Gandhi National Creche Scheme for the Children of Working Mothers

4.29 Rajiv Gandhi National Crèche Scheme for the Children of Working Mothers provides day care facilities to the children in the age group 0-6 years from families with monthly income of less than ₹ 12000/- . In addition to being a safe space for the children, the creches provide services such as supplementary nutrition, pre-school education and emergency health care, etc.

4.30 The scheme envisages implementation through the Central Social Welfare Board (CSWB), Indian Council for Child Welfare (ICCW), and Bhartiya Adim Jati Sevak Sangh (BAJSS). In view of the complaints regarding irregularities in management of crèches by BAJSS, 5,522 creches were temporarily transferred to CSWB with effect from 18th November, 2008. The irregularities have been enquired into by CVO of the Ministry and the report has been sent to Central Vigilance

Commission for advice. Further, CCA (MHRD) has been asked to conduct an internal audit of the accounts and transactions of BAJSS. The report is awaited.

Financial Norms

4.31 The scheme provides grant of ₹ 3,532/- per month for a creche, limited to 90% of the schematic pattern or actual expenditure whichever is less and the remaining expenditure is borne by the implementing agencies. Honorarium to creche workers is fully funded under the scheme. The details of grant admissible are as under:-

Recurring grant

| Components | Ceiling of expenditure (in ₹) | Grant(in ₹) |
|--|-------------------------------|----------------|
| Honorarium to two crèche workers per crèche @ ₹ 1000.00 per crèche | 2000.00 per month | 2000.00 (100%) |
| Supplementary nutrition per crèche for 25 children for 26 days @ ₹ 2.08 per child | 1352.00 per month | 1217.00 (90%) |
| Emergency medicines and contingencies per crèche | 350.00 per month | 315.00 (90%) |

| Replacement of old consumable stores at an interval of five years @ ₹ 5000.00 per crèche. | 5000.00 per crèche | 3000.00 per creche |

Monitoring of Crèches

4.32 The Scheme has in-built component of monitoring of crèches. State-wise independent monitoring agencies have been identified which include Schools of Social Work, Women's Studies Centres and other reputed agencies. Grant for monitoring of crèches is given @ ₹ 700.00 per crèche visited and inspected and a lump sum one time grant of ₹ 10000.00 to each monitoring agency. Every crèche is required to be inspected at least once in a period of two years.

4.33 CSWB took up inspections of its crèches and, based on the reports, closed down the non-functional / non-performing Units. Therefore, number of functional creches has come down to 22,599. The number of functional creches (as on 28th February, 2011) is as under :-

| S. No. | Name of agency | Number of Crèches |
|--------|--|-------------------|
| 1. | CSWB | 16,075 |
| 2. | BAJSS (Temporarily transferred to CSWB) | 1,221 |

Recent initiatives

4.34 To improve the quality of services provided in the creches, the Ministry recently undertook a review of the procedures being adopted by the Implementing Agencies in selection of location NGO, Creche worker; monitoring, and release of funds.

4.35 Standard Operating Procedures have been developed which incorporate greater role of State Governments in the implementation of the scheme. This includes involvement in establishing credibility of NGOs, review of pre-funding appraisal report and monitoring at District level by a monitoring committee headed by District Magistrate and by local committees with Patwari, Govt. School Teacher/ Village level worker, representatives of Village Panchayat.

4.36 A Committee had been set up by the Ministry to suggest changes in the scheme for improving its coverage and quality. The Committee has suggested enhanced financial norms, stringent monitoring and recommended fulfillment of certain preconditions before setting up of the crèches.

4.37 The data on working women requiring creche services for the children is not adequate. The implementing agencies follow their own systems of need assessment. Therefore, modalities for determining the demand and identifying the areas of demand for creches is being developed.

Girl Child

4.38 The girl child is the most vulnerable member of the society in India. She encounters strong discrimination at every step of her life - the first being survival itself on account of the high incidence of foeticide. If she survives, she faces other kinds of discrimination where she has little or no access to education, nutrition, health or other essential needs. She is highly vulnerable to abuse, domestic labour, trafficking for commercial sexual exploitation, child marriage, early motherhood, frequent pregnancy and delivery etc. A significant reason for this situation of the girl child is diversion of limited funds and facilities particularly in poor households, towards the male child on account of ‘son preference’ who has a more important status in the family hierarchy.

The Ministry of Women and Child Development has taken a number of initiatives to enhance the status of the girl child. Some of these are the following:

Dhanalakshmi - “Conditional Cash Transfer for Girl Child with Insurance Cover”

4.39 The Ministry of Women and Child Development launched “Dhanalakshmi”—“a Conditional Cash Transfer Scheme for Girl Child with Insurance Cover (CCT)” on a pilot basis in March, 2008. Under the scheme, cash transfers are made to the family of the girl child (preferably the mother) on fulfilling certain specific conditionalities related to birth and registration, immunization, school enrolment and retention upto Class VIII and delay in marriage of the girl child till the age of 18 years.

4.40 The objective of the Scheme is two-fold -

- To provide a set of staggered financial incentives for families to encourage them to retain the girl child and look after her well being.
- To change the attitudinal mindset of the family towards the girl - by linking cash transfers to her well-being - to look upon the girl as an asset rather than a liability since her very existence has led to cash inflow to the family.

4.41 The Scheme is being implemented in eleven blocks across seven States (Andhra Pradesh, Chattisgarh, Jharkhand, Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Punjab and Orissa) in the country. These blocks, except that of Punjab, are educationally backward as identified by the Department of Education. An Outlay of ₹ 10 Crores is provided in Annual Plan 2010-11 for the scheme. State-wise list of the funds released in 2009-10 and 2010-11 (up to 28th February, 2010) under the scheme is at Annex XXVII.

National Girl Child Day

4.42 In order to bring to centre stage the different problems faced by the girl child and the need to spread gender sensitization amongst the various sections of society, the Government of India, in 2009, declared January 24 as the “National Girl Child Day”. This year, the celebrations on the National Girl Child Day were held on 21st January, 2011. The function was presided over by Smt. Krishna Tirath, the Minister of State (Independent Charge) for Women and Child Development. The theme for the day was ‘Adolescent Girls: Issues and Challenges’. Three Adolescent Girls from different parts of the country, shared their own experiences; challenges and how they have managed to overcome these to come out of the difficult circumstances. A panel discussion was held on the subject where the eminent panelists discussed several issues including focus on unmet needs of adolescent girls in terms of education, health and overview of rights of adolescent girls. Legal provisions of Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, JJ Act and Domestic Violence Act and their enforcement were also discussed. The event was attended by a large number of school children; Development Partners, representatives from NGOs and related Government Ministries/Departments. There was a lively interactive session in which the school students and NGOs raised a number of questions regarding implementation of various Acts, awareness generation and the role of various law enforcement agencies, which were answered by the Panelists.

The Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006

4.43 Child marriage is a violation of child rights. According to National Family Health Survey (NFHS-3), it is estimated that around 47% of women of age 20-24 were married by the age of 18 years. Child marriage has serious consequences on the well-being of a child. It denies a child its basic right to good health, nutrition, education and freedom from violence, abuse and exploitation. Child marriages, especially in cases of girls, have serious health consequences such as early motherhood, frequent pregnancies and abortions. Child marriage also makes a girl child vulnerable to domestic violence and abuse.

4.44 The Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006 (PCMA) was enacted repealing the Child Marriage Restraint Act of 1929 in order to prohibit child marriages rather than only restraining them. PCMA has been enforced with effect from 1st November, 2007. It makes child marriage an offence and prescribes punishment for those conducting/ abetting/ promoting/ permitting/ solemnising child marriages. It provides powers to the State Government to appoint Child Marriage Prohibition Officers (CMPO) and makes child marriages voidable by giving choice to the children in the marriage to seek annulment of marriage.

4.45 The Ministry reviewed the implementation of the Act in the Conference of State Ministers/ State Secretaries of Women and Child Development held on 16 -17th June, 2010. All States / UTs were again requested to frame Rules under the Act and to appoint Child Marriage Prohibition Officers. So far, 18 States/UTs have framed Rules under the Act (Annex-XXVIII) and another set of 22 States/UTs have appointed CMPOs (Annex-XXIX).

The list of Awardees is at Annex - XXXII.

Child Budgeting

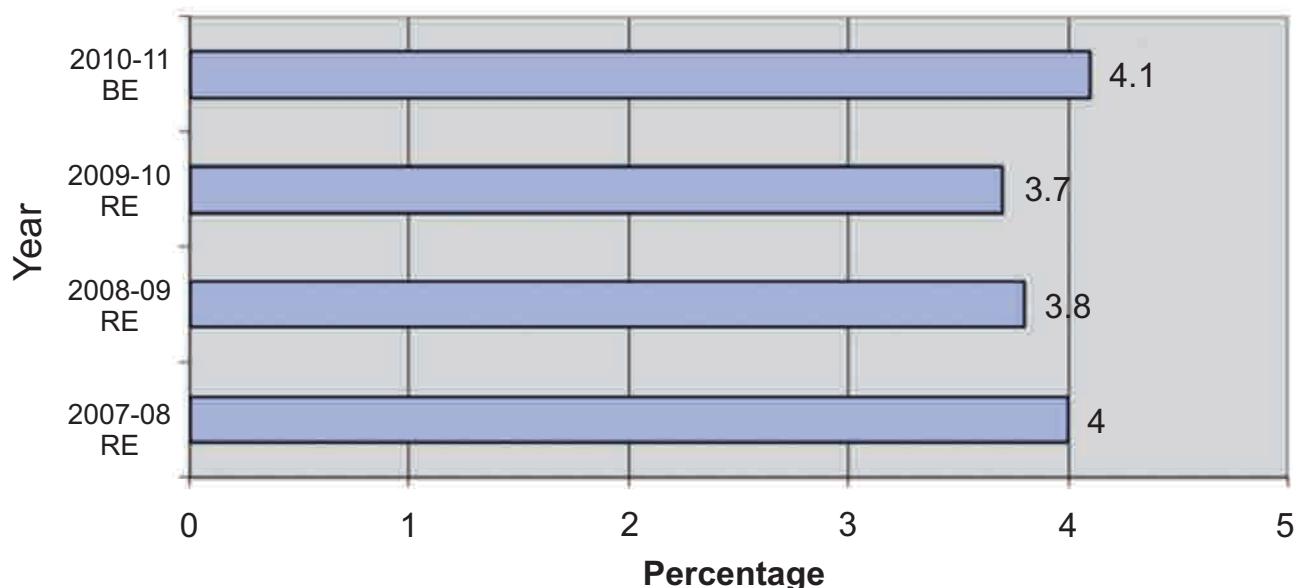

4.51 Public expenditure meant for the development of the general population can be expected to have some benefits for children as well. However, since children comprise one of the largest disadvantaged sections of Indian society, there is a strong case for identifying the proportion of public expenditure meant for addressing the needs of children in particular. This requires the segregation of schemes meant specifically for addressing the needs of children, from other development schemes. The total magnitude of budget outlays on child specific schemes is referred to as the ‘Child Budget.’ Thus, the ‘Child Budget’ is not a separate budget but a part of the total government budget.

4.52 A Statement on ‘Child Budgeting’ was introduced in the Union Budget for 2008-09 (i.e. Budget Provisions for Schemes for the Welfare of Children, Statement 22, Expenditure Budget Vol. I, Union Budget 2008-09). This statement has been carried over in subsequent Union Budgets (i.e. in 2009-10 and 2010-11), and captures all child-specific schemes in the Union Budget. In 2008-09, when the ‘Child Budgeting’ statement was introduced in the Union Budget, the “Demands for Grants” with child-specific schemes included those of the Ministries of Women and Child Development, Human Resource Development, Health and Family Welfare, Labour and Employment, Social Justice and Empowerment, Tribal Affairs, Minority Affairs, and Youth Affairs and Sports. The ‘Child Budgeting’ statement now covers 21 “Demands for Grants” (including Union Ministries of Atomic Energy, Nuclear Power, Industrial Policy and Promotion, Posts, Telecommunication, and Information and Broadcasting among others), marking a significant increase from an initial eight “Demands for Grants” in 2008-09. The following diagram shows total outlays for child specific schemes as percentage of total Union Budget :

5 | Gender Budgeting

Gender Budgeting

5.1 The way Government budgets allocate resources, has the potential to transform gender inequalities. Looking to the huge potential of Government budgets to make positive changes in gender dimensions of the society, in recent years, Gender Budgeting, as a tool, has been propagated at national and international levels. Gender Budgeting is a process that entails maintaining a gender perspective at various stages like programme/ policy formulation, assessment of needs of target groups, review of extant policies and guidelines, allocation of resources, implementation of programmes, impact assessment, reprioritization of resources and so on. A gender responsive budget is the culmination of this process.

Box:1 Gender and Sex

Gender is culturally and socially constructed roles, responsibilities, privileges, relations and expectations of women and men, boys and girls and changes with time and from place to place.

Sex refers to biological differences between the male and female of the species. It remains unchanged.

5.2 Gender Budgeting involves dissection of the Government budget to establish its gender-differential impacts and to translate gender commitments into budgetary commitments. It does not seek to create a separate budget but to provide affirmative action to address the specific needs of women.

5.3 Gender Budgeting lends itself to strengthening administrative processes and actions to achieve the targets for improvement in the position of women. It not only entails a look at allocation of resources for women but goes beyond to cover tracking the utilization of allocated resources, impact analysis, beneficiary incidence analysis of public expenditure and policy from a gender perspective.

5.4 Critical activities constituting the gender budgeting exercise thus include :

- a) Addressing gap between policy commitment and allocation for women through adequate resource allocation and gender sensitive programme formulation and implementation.
- b) Mainstreaming gender concerns in public expenditure and policy.
- c) Gender audit of public expenditure, programme implementation and policies.

5.5 The Ministry of Women and Child Development as the nodal agency for gender budgeting has been undertaking several initiatives for taking it forward at the National and State levels. In 2004-05, the Ministry adopted “Budgeting for Gender Equity” as a Mission Statement. The mainstreaming of gender concerns has been reiterated as a mission of the Ministry in its Results Framework Document in 2010-11. Gender Budgeting has also been much emphasized in the National Mission for Empowerment of Women. One of the key functions of the National Mission will be to oversee gender mainstreaming of programs, policies, institutional arrangements and processes of participating Ministries, Institutions and Organizations.

5.6 In recent years, Gender Budgeting initiatives, both at Central and State Government level, have been gaining focus. Although most of these are still primarily focused on analysing the gender specific budget and its coverage of men and women, the ultimate aim is to mainstream gender into the criteria that determine the planning, formulation and implementation of the budget. In order to make this a reality, appropriate strategies are being identified and taken up. The Ministry of Women and Child Development as the nodal agency for Gender Budgeting in India has been following a three pronged strategy to pursue the process of Gender Budgeting in the country;

- I. Placing emphasis on and advocating for setting up of gender budgeting structures/mechanisms in all Ministries/Departments of the Government;
- II. Strengthening internal and external capacities and building expertise to undertake gender mainstreaming of policies/schemes/programmes; and

Box:2 Gender Budgeting and Five-Year Plan

The plan documents have over the years reflected the evolving trends in gender issues. Formal earmarking of funds for women began with the Women's Component Plan. However, gender sensitivity in allocation of resources starts with the Seventh Plan

- The Seventh Plan introduced the concept of monitoring of 27 beneficiary oriented schemes for women.
- The Eighth Plan (1992-97) highlighted, for the first time, a gender perspective and the need to ensure a definite flow of funds from the general developmental sectors to women. The Plan document made an express statement that "...the benefits to development from different sectors should not bypass women and special programmes on women should complement the general development programmes. The latter, in turn, should reflect great gender sensitivity".
- The Ninth Plan (1997-2002) adopted the 'Women's Component Plan' as one of the major strategies and directed both the Central and State Governments to ensure "not less than 30 per cent of the funds/benefits are earmarked in all the women's related sectors. Special vigil advocated on the flow of the earmarked funds/benefits through an effective mechanism to ensure that the proposed strategy brings forth a holistic approach towards empowering women."
- The Tenth Plan reinforced the commitment to gender budgeting stating that the two effective concepts of Women Component Plan and Gender Budgeting would be tied up to play a complementary role to each other, and thus ensure both preventive and post facto action in enabling women to receive their rightful share from all the women related general development sectors."
- The Eleventh Plan clearly states, 'gender equity requires adequate provisions to be made in policies and schemes across Ministries and Departments. It also entails strict adherence to gender budgeting across the board'.

III. Initiating the exercise of gender auditing of existing programmes, which would then feed into addressing gaps and strengthening service delivery mechanisms.

5.7 Over the years focus has been particularly laid on institutionalizing the process by creation of systems and mechanism and capacity building of key personnel for mainstreaming the process of Gender Budgeting.

I. SETTING UP STRUCTURES AND MECHANISMS FOR GENDER BUDGETING

Creating Structures at Ministry/Department level

5.8 To provide impetus to Gender Budgeting, the Finance Minister in 2004-05 had mandated the setting up of Gender Budgeting Cells in all Ministries / Departments. He highlighted the perceived need for budget data to be presented in a manner that brought out the gender sensitivity of the budgetary allocations. The Ministry of Finance in consultation with Ministry of Women and Child Development had issued a Gender Budget Charter on 8th March, 2007. The Charter laid down guidelines for composition and functions of the Gender Budgeting Cells which is at Annex - XXXIII.

Box:3 Women Component Plan and Gender Budgeting

The Planning Commission has clarified that, "...Women Component Plan should no longer be used as a strategy either at the Centre or at the State level. In its place, as already initiated by the Ministry of Finance and Ministry of Women and Child Development, we should adopt Gender Responsive Budgeting or Gender Budgeting only."

5.9 The Ministry of Women and Child Development has been continuously and actively pursuing with Ministries for setting up of Gender Budgeting Cells (GBCs). So far, 56 Ministries/Departments have set up GBCs. The list of Ministries and Departments that have set up Gender Budgeting Cells is indicated in Annex-XXXIV. These cells are expected to serve as focal points for coordinating Gender Budgeting initiatives, both intra and inter ministerial.

5.10 The Ministry of Women and Child Development is now working towards building the skills and competence of these GBCs to take up a more pro-active role in gender mainstreaming within policies, programmes and budgets of their Departments. Specific Ministries/Departments are being identified with whom a hands-on Gender Budgeting exercise would be undertaken, followed by the creation of a system wherein the recommendations are reviewed and followed up by the GBCs. The GBCs are proposed to be positioned more as a vetting agency for gender scrutiny of all projects/programmes/schemes within the Ministry/ Department, particularly the new ones.

Gender Budget Statement 20

5.11 Another important step taken in the direction of Gender Budgeting in the country was the incorporation of the Statement 20 as a part of the Expenditure Budget Document Volume 1. Herein the Gender Budgetary allocations are reflected in a two-way classified Gender Budgeting Statement. The first part of the Statement, Part A includes Schemes with 100% allocation for women while Part B of the Statement includes Schemes/Programmes with 30 to 99% allocation for women. Box 4 shows

Box:4 Allocations for women as reflected in Gender Budget Statement (Statement 20)

| Year | No. of Ministries (No. of Demands) | Magnitude of Gender Budget (BE) (crore) |
|-------------|---|--|
| 2005-06 | 9 (10) | 14,378.68 (2.79 %) |
| 2006-07 | 18 (24) | 28,736.53 (5.09%) |
| 2007-08 | 27 (33) | 31,177.96 (4.5%) |
| 2008-09 | 27 (33) | 27,661.67 (3.68%) |
| 2009-10 | 28 (33) | 56,857.61(5.57%) |
| 2010-11 | 28(33) | 67,749.80 (6.11%) |

the allocations for women as reflected in the Gender Budget Statement over the years.

5.12 There was an apparent fall in the Gender Budget allocation for women in 2007-08 on account of a more accurate reflection of the actual amounts flowing to women through programmes and schemes. The percentage of estimated allocation to women further fell in the Year 2008-09 because of the introduction of Statement on Child Budgeting in the Union Budget, i.e., Statement 22. Several schemes such as Integrated Child Development Services scheme of Ministry of Women and Child Development and Sarva Shiksha Abhiyaan of the Ministry of Human Resource Development which were earlier being reflected in the Gender Budget Statement were shifted to Statement 22 with no identification of funds flowing to girl children. In 2009-10, an attempt was made to reflect the allocations for girl children under some of the schemes that were shifted to Statement 22 in Part B of Statement 20.

5.13 Refinement of the Gender Budget Statements to reflect accurately the allocations earmarked for women and girls is an ongoing process.

Modifications and Methodological Improvisations

5.14 A brainstorming workshop was organized in April, 2010 to improve reflection of budgetary allocations in the Gender Budget Statement 20. Gender Budgeting experts, officers of the Planning Commission, select Ministries/Departments of Government of India, officers of some State Governments participated in the consultation.

5.15 Another objective of the workshop was to understand developments both at the national and international level in the field of Gender Budgeting and to review and get a feedback on the training programmes undertaken by the Ministry.

II. CAPACITY BUILDING INITIATIVES

Workshops and Trainings

5.16 A Scheme for Gender Budgeting was launched in the year 2008. Gender Budgeting programmes can be undertaken by the Ministry directly under the scheme or by Central/ State Government agencies, with financial assistance from the Ministry. An outlay of ₹ 2.00 crores was allocated for the scheme in the year 2010-11, for conducting various training programmes and workshops on Gender Budgeting.

5.17 Till the end of December, 2010, 10 training programmes /Workshops/ Seminars/ Conferences on the subject were organized by the Ministry in collaboration with Institutes such as Indian Institute of Public Administration (IIPA), Lal Bahadur Shastri National Academy of Administration (LBSNAA) and the State Governments for different groups of stakeholders. Apart from organizing training programmes, technical resources were provided at workshops organized by other agencies. A list of activities undertaken by the Ministry during 2010-11 is at Annex-XXXV & XXXVI.

5.18 The training programmes are focused on increasing awareness about the need and importance of Gender Budgeting along with the framework and tools to undertake Gender Budgeting. A participatory methodology is followed using a variety of case studies and groups exercises which can enable the participants to take forward the process in their respective areas of work.

5.19 The training programmes of the Ministry have facilitated adoption of Gender Budgeting by many State Governments. States like Madhya Pradesh, Chattisgarh, Karnataka, Bihar, Uttarakhand, Kerala, Rajasthan, & Jammu and Kashmir have undertaken various Gender Budgeting initiatives, some of which are highlighted below:

- The Government of Karnataka has introduced a Gender Budget Statement as a part of its budget document. The Gender Budgeting Statement is being published for the past 3 years and the Department of WCD has a mandate of impact evaluation, which is being taken up this year for some of the Category - A schemes.
- In Kerala, it was decided that in the year, 2010-11, a major focus would be on women friendly infrastructure. A survey of public offices in the districts of Kerala was thus conducted which showed that a number of public buildings do not have separate toilets for women. For women who commute to work, basic facilities like rest rooms and toilets are required at such public places like bus stations. Thus a new scheme Gender Friendly Infrastructure has been formulated. The scheme promotes not only convergence but is also an example of Gender Budgeting in mainstream Departments like Kerala State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC), Public Works Department (PWD), Ports and Housing.

- The State Commission for Women in Jammu and Kashmir has done exemplary work by organizing 8 training programmes on Gender Budgeting, in 2010-11, for district level officials.

Interaction with Ministries

5.20 The Ministry has also been focusing on mainstream Ministries/Departments which have large budgetary allocations but are considered “gender neutral” due to the constitution of their programmes/schemes which are not beneficiary focused. Apart from training programmes, the Ministry organizes one-to-one discussions with senior officials of such Ministries to provide orientation on gender issues within their sectors. This orientation serves as the first step to introduce the concept of Gender Budgeting in these Ministries/Departments.

5.21 In 2010-11, a one- to- one discussion was held with the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways to discuss the possibilities of gender mainstreaming in their Schemes and Programmes (Box-5).

Box:5 Scope of Gender Budgeting in Ministry of Road Transport and Highways

1. Gender Audit of ADB and World Bank funded projects to be initiated as a part of social audit.
2. Specific gender concerns to be addressed in the Detailed Project Report (DPR) or prepared by the Ministry for new projects. Accordingly modified guidelines can be prepared and issued to the Engineers for undertaking the exercise.
3. Taking a look at the existing manuals for preparing roads and bridges from the gender lens; for review and redesigning, if necessary.

Development of Resource Material

5.22 In collaboration with UNDP, UNIFEM and International experts, the Ministry has developed a Handbook on Gender Budgeting for Gender Budget Cells as well as a Training Manual for Ministries and Departments of Government of India. The objective of the Training Manual is to create a core group of Trainers who in turn shall facilitate Gender Budgeting Trainings in their respective Ministries and Departments.

5.23 The Ministry has also developed a Strategic Framework of Activities and a range of tools which can be applied at different stages of the budget making process for ensuring gender equitable outcomes of all programmes and schemes of the Government. Some of these tools constitute different entry points, such as, Spatial Mapping; Participatory Planning and Budgeting;

Gender Based Profile of Public Expenditure; Impact Analysis through Monitoring, Evaluation and Field Level Surveys; and Guidelines for Gender Sensitive Review of Public Expenditure and Policy (in the form of Checklist I and II at Box 6 and 7) for undertaking Gender Budgeting activities.

III. GENDER AUDIT OF SCHEMES

5.24 The third important aspect of Gender Budgeting is undertaking a gender analysis/ audit of specific schemes. The Ministry plans to take up Gender Audit of a few critical schemes with focus on the analysis of the programme/scheme guidelines, actual allocations, the beneficiary incidence / impact analysis, and on the delivery mechanisms. The results would then feed into addressing gaps and strengthening service delivery mechanisms of the schemes.

Issues Related to Nutrition Policy and Prime Minister's National Council on India's Nutritional Challenges

7.5 Improvement in nutritional status of the population requires a multi-sectoral approach for accelerated action on determinants of malnutrition, better integration & policy coherence. At the same time, there is a need for direct nutrition interventions for targeted & vulnerable groups such as children (0-6 yrs), pregnant & lactating mothers, and adolescent girls.

7.6 The FNB provided the backend support to Ministry of Women & Child Development, which jointly with Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, prepared a Strategy Note to 'Address India's Nutrition Challenges'. They (FNB) also assisted the Ministry at the time of consultations held with various stakeholders, Consultative Committee of the Parliament and in a meeting with Young MPs. Thereafter, they associated with the Planning Commission when it held the Multi-Stakeholders Retreat on Addressing 'India's Nutrition Challenges, on 7-8th August, 2010 in which nearly 200 participants from the central Ministries / Departments and State Governments/UTs took part. Anganwadi workers, Supervisors, CDPOs, ANMs, Health functionaries, PRI members and NGOs also participated. The various suggestions received and consultations held were incorporated in the agenda for the Prime Minister's National Council for India's Nutrition Challenges.

7.7 The first meeting of the Prime Minister's National Council for India's Nutrition Challenges was held on 24th November, 2010 major recommendations of which are as under:

(i) The Ministry of Women & Child Development will take steps to strengthen and restructure The ICDS with special focus on pregnant and lactating mothers and children under three. The ICDS also needs to forge strong institutional convergence with National Rural Health Mission and Total Sanitation Campaign particularly at the district and village level.

It needs to provide flexibility for local action and empower mothers in particular and the community in general to have a stake in the programme.

(ii) A multi-sectoral programme in consultation with Planning Commission and Ministry of Health & Family Welfare would be prepared to address the maternal and child malnutrition in selected 200 high-burden districts. This programme will bring together various national programmes through strong institutional and programmatic convergence at the State, District, Block and Village levels.

(iii) A nationwide information, education and communication campaign, coordinated by the Ministry of Women & Child Development, in consultation with the Planning Commission and Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, would be launched against malnutrition so as to address issues of status of women, the care of pregnant mothers and children under two, breastfeeding, the importance of balanced nutrition, health, hygiene and sanitation. The active involvement of people's representatives, civil society activists, media persons and leaders of the entertainment industry would be ensured.

(iv) The Ministries that deal with Health, Drinking Water Supply and Sanitation, School Education, Agriculture and Food & Public Distribution will bring strong nutrition focus to their programmes.

Following the meeting of the Prime Minister's National Council on India's Nutritional Challenges on 24th November, several meetings, consultations, discussions have been held by Secretary, WCD and Joint Secretary, WCD with the different Ministries, Development Partners, Institutions etc. and conceptual frameworks are in progress. During 1st April, 2010 to 28th February, 2011, RMK sanctioned loans of ₹ 10.80 crore benefiting 9198 women while the amount disbursed was ₹ 7.01 crore as at Annex - LX.

The reasons for low performance during the year is shortage of staff as well as change in external environment in the micro-finance sector. There was frequent change in the charge of Executive Director during the year and presently Joint Secretary in the Ministry is holding it as additional charge. The micro-finance crisis in Andhra Pradesh also impacted the loaning process.

The pie chart depiction of the State-wise Performance of RMK since inception is as under:

are as follows:-

| Sl. No. | Date | Place | Name of the Programme |
|---------|------------------------------------|--|---|
| 1. | 13 th May, 2010. | Nowgong, District Chattarpur, Madhya Pradesh | Capacity Building cum Awareness Generation programme |

(C) Other Developmental initiatives

11.9 The partner organizations that take loans from RMK are directed to, inter alia, impart literacy education, health awareness etc. to the women SHG members. As a part of the developmental initiatives for the future growth of micro finance, RMK has launched a Nodal Agency Scheme. Till date, RMK has appointed 22 Nodal Agencies in the entire country for credit linkages with potential NGOs with a view to expand its outreach in a cost effective manner in less or uncovered areas of the country. The performance of these Nodal Agencies is reviewed from time to time. The list of nodal agencies is at Annex - LXIII. RMK has another important scheme called ‘Franchisee’. So far RMK has appointed 3 Franchisees. RMK extends bulk finance to Franchisees who in turn lend it to smaller NGOs of the State/ District with similar terms and conditions as prescribed by RMK. These IMOs then lend to the ultimate women beneficiaries. The details of Franchisees are at Annex - LXIV.

Important Programmes during the Year

11.10 Programmes on Micro Finance and Income Generation issues at NIPCCD Centres: Programmes were organized for Orientation on Micro Finance and Income Generation issues at NIPCCD, Indore, MP during 11 - 15th May, 2010 at NIPCCD, Bangalore during 15-19th June 2010, at NIPCCD, Lucknow during 27-31st December 2010. The programmes were attended by grass-root level functionaries of partner IMOs.

11.11. Awareness Generation programme for poor women of Bundelkhand: During the year, RMK took special initiative to provide small loans to the poverty stricken women of the Bundelkhand region through NGOs working at grass root level in the Region. For the purpose, RMK organized trainings for these NGOs about the procedure for taking loans under micro credit schemes of RMK. For this RMK organized ‘Awareness Generation programme for poor women of Bundelkhand’ at Nowgong, District Chattarpur, M.P. (Bundelkhand) on 13th May, 2010. It was addressed by Hon’ble Minister of State (Independent Charge), Ministry of Women and Child Development, Govt of India to create awareness among the rural women of Bundelkhand region for their socio-economic upliftment. About 3000 rural women from the region participated.

11.12 One day marketing cum exhibition: celebrating empowerment ..bazar’ at Hotel Ashok, New Delhi, RMK co-sponsored ‘One day marketing cum exhibition: celebrating empowerment ...bazar’ at Hotel Ashok, New Delhi organized by ‘Guild for Services’ in April, 2010. Besides many small women entrepreneurs and self employed women, the women SHGs benefited under RMK Schemes also exhibited and marketed their products.

Hon’ble Minister of State for Women and Child Development (I/C), inaugurated the programme in which information on various welfare schemes for children and women was disseminated. It was a great success and large number of participants attended it.

11.15 Restructuring of RMK: In the past few years, the Indian microfinance sector has exhibited a strong growth. The outstanding loans have grown at a CAGR of 86% to reach ₹ 20,600 Crores in March, 2010. There is still tremendous potential for microfinance in India given the low penetration of formal financial services in low-income households. In view of this, it was felt that RMK be strengthened in term of institutional as well as financial capacities to eventually pave the way for transforming it into a Women’s Development Bank. However, since as of now it is a Society and functioning from a single office, the transformation into a Development Bank will need to be gradual and sequential. The Governing Board of RMK has approved “to restructure and strengthen RMK from existing single office Society to Government owned Non Deposit Taking Systemically Important Non - Banking Finance Company (NBFC-ND-SI) u/s 617 of the Companies Act, with a Pan-Indian office network backed by need based capital. Once the NBFC is formed, the business of the Society will be transferred to it, in due course, through appropriate procedure. During the transition period, RMK will continue to function as society and will expand in present form with need based regional offices and branches with appropriate delegation of powers.”

11.16 For this purpose, Ernest and Young, an independent consultant was engaged to prepare a Detailed Project Report (DPR) envisaging development of overall business model of RMK with an objective of making it a self-sustaining organization. The Consultant first submitted ‘As-is-Study Report’ capturing the current set up and functioning of RMK and undertook a ‘Gap Analysis’. Thereafter, it has submitted ‘High level recommendations about Restructuring’ based on its study; inter alia, of microfinance scenario, important stakeholders and players at national and international level and feedback from the existing NGO partners of RMK. Following these, Detailed Project Report (DPR) has now been received and is under consideration.

Some Success Stories of the Women beneficiaries of Micro Finance Programme of RMK

1. Tamilnadu

11.17 Two SHGs consisting of 26 members mostly Dalits and Backward of village Thavalai veeranpatti of Trichirapalli District started a dairying unit after taking micro-credit from Rashtriya Mahila Kosh (RMK) through LEAD a grass root NGO. Initially the unit was started with a loan of ₹ 76,000/- but subsequently another loan of ₹ 2.99 lakh per group helped the unit to develop. The production of the unit was raised to 200 liters of milk per day. With the increase in the output the unit has been able to improve the livelihood of all the group members. The unit has provided additional employment of 3 women workers for managing the unit, collecting milk from the members and for maintaining the accounts of the unit. The profitability of the unit is more than 25 %. Keeping in view the fast growth of the unit the women has started growing fodder grass and trees in their farms. It is said that the progress made by these women is much more than that of men in any case. This growth has encouraged the women to start a cattle feed mixing unit and artificial insemination centre. The members of the group are selling their milk through the Dairy Cooperative but they are planning to go to the market directly with a view to get better price and profit.

2. Uttar Pradesh

11.18 Mrs. Krishna Devi from Lalla Ka Purva, Block Sohawal, District Faizabad, UP is from a very poor family. Her family consists of 4 members but their house is situated at some distance from the main village and as such initially she was not aware of any SHG. However, once she came to know about the SHG and the benefits of micro-credit assistance she joined the group. She approached PANI, a grass root NGO working in that area and NGO partner of RMK for micro-credit assistance that was sanctioned to her. With the credit, she purchased a sewing machine. Her husband being a tailor could work on her behalf. Slowly she expanded her activities and went for another set of improved sewing machines. This helped her to raise her monthly income. Again she took loan from RMK through PANI. She diversified her business from a tailor shop to electronic goods shop. This diversification gave her courage for a big shop and business. She is now running a shop and selling electronic goods. Her monthly income has gone up. Her standard of living has also gone up. She sends her children to a good school and living a life of self-respect. Her husband gives her full support and treats her as equal partner in the life. This gives her much satisfaction. She is all praise of RMK for extending micro credit assistance and making her life joyful.

Towards a new dawn

Central Adoption Resource Authority (CARA)

13.1 Central Adoption Resource Authority (CARA) is an autonomous body under the Ministry of Women & Child Development, Government of India. It functions as the nodal body for adoption of Indian children and is mandated to monitor and regulate in-country and inter-country adoptions. CARA is designated as the Central Authority to deal with inter-country adoptions in accordance with the provisions of the Hague Convention on Inter-country Adoption, 1993, ratified by Government of India in 2003.

Organization Structure

13.2 Managing Committee of CARA consists of both official and non-official members and takes all important decisions relating to programme matters. Day-to-day matters are looked after and managed by the Member Secretary of CARA as Chief Executive Officer.

Activities

13.3 CARA primarily deals with adoption of orphan, abandoned and surrendered children through its associated /recognized adoption agencies.

Data on Adoption

| Year | In-country | Inter-country | Total |
|------|------------|---------------|-------|
| 2008 | 2169 | 821 | 2990 |
| 2009 | 1852 | 666 | 2518 |
| 2010 | 5693 | 593 | 6286 |

Revision of existing Adoption Guidelines

13.4 The existing adoption Guidelines were notified in 2004 for in-country adoption and 2006 for inter-country adoption. Since then, there have been changes in the adoption scenario including amendment to Juvenile Justice (JJ) Act in 2006 providing for stringent measures for child protection and rehabilitation of orphans and other children through adoption. The Special Commission constituted under the Hague Convention on Inter-country Adoption in 2010 has issued further guidelines to regulate inter-country adoption. These include stress on ethical practices, transparency in adoption process, larger involvement of agencies and authorities in adoption etc. Proposal for an enabling legislation on Hague Convention on Inter-country Adoption is under formulation

13.5 CARA undertook revision of the existing adoption guidelines to incorporate best practices in the adoption system. The guidelines will incorporate, in general, the changes in respect of the following areas :

- Proper verification of source of the child
- Priority to domestic adoption
- Adoption of orphan, abandoned and surrendered children to proceed under JJ Act.
- Centralized system for inter-country adoption

'Child Adoption Resource Information & Guidance System (CARINGS)' launched on 14th February 2011 by Smt. Krishna Tirath, Hon'ble MOS(I/C), MWCD.

- Inter-country adoptions to proceed only after final adoption order in India
- Inter-country adoptions only to countries, which have ratified the Hague Convention on Inter-country Adoption. Exception would be provided only to Indian nationals.
- Stringent post-adoption monitoring

Launch of CARINGS (Central Adoption Resource Information and Guidance System): e-Governance in Adoption

13.6 Child Adoption Resource Information & Guidance System (CARINGS) is Government's dynamic response for a benign, benevolent, transparent and friendly adoption process. CARINGS offers a more child centric approach based on the principles of care, convenience and comfort for the child, parents and agencies. CARINGS was launched on 14th February, 2011 by Hon'ble Minister of State (I/C), Women & Child Development .

13.7 Consultation with stakeholders revealed the following gaps in the adoption system.

- Inadequate quality data and information for diligent policy planning
- Ineffective monitoring of adoption process
- Gaps in post adoption follow-up
- Lack of synergy and convergence among implementing agencies
- Lack of pre-adoption information to PAPs

- No means to track the status of adoption applications by PAPs

13.8 CARINGS, an online platform, through a robust web-based management system, is Government's response to address the gaps in the system. Developed by Central Adoption Resource Authority (CARA) with the support of NIC, CARINGS shall facilitate expeditious and smooth adoption, ensure transparency in the adoption process, increase accountability of implementing agencies, create a network of stakeholders towards improved synergy and maintain a National Database to enable effective policy making and research.

13.9 CARINGS will provide comprehensive online information on adoptable children and prospective adoptive parents and is a repository of information on adoption agencies. The system will also enable the Government to monitor the adoption and post adoption process, thereby ensuring transparency and early rehabilitation of the child. Prospective adoptive parents can now access pre-adoption information, register online and track status at www.adoptionindia.nic.in.

Training/Development Activities

13.10 CARA has expanded its training base and held 36 training programmes and consultative meets in the current year. The following programmes were held upto January, 2011.

- 4 Zonal Meets on Adoption
- 21 State Orientation Programmes
- 4 Interactive Meets with adoptive and prospective adoptive parents
- National meet of Adoption Coordinating agencies
- 4 Workshops on promoting In-country Adoption
- Workshops for agencies on CARINGS

'Interactive Meet with Adoptive Parents' chaired by Shri Sudhir Kumar, Addl. Secretary, MWCD on 1st May 2010.

Linkages established

13.11 So far, only 72 CARA recognized Indian Placement Agencies were reporting to CARA on regular basis. As a result of consultations and interactions with stakeholders, CARA has established linkages with 100 Licensed Adoption Placement Agencies (which are recognized by State Governments) undertaking in-country adoptions during the year. These agencies are now regularly reporting to CARA.

Post-adoption Follow-up Tour and participation in Special Commission on Hague Convention on Inter-country Adoption 13.12 CARA officials visited the US, the largest receiving country for adopted Indian children, on a post-adoption follow-up visit. CARA official also attended the Special Commission at Hague.

Innovations and Potential Best Practices in ICDS

In the implementation of ICDS, different states have adopted innovative approaches to enhance the effectiveness of their efforts. Similarly, different development partner organizations have supported such initiatives and several initiatives are implemented for a considerable period of time at a significant scale. Based on the experiences of implementers, quantitative and qualitative evaluations conducted by supporting agencies, many of these initiatives are considered as effective approaches and are often referred to as either Potential/ Promising Practices or as Best Practices (BPs).

Some of the projects of development agencies, like UNICEF, World Bank and CARE, consist of ‘Integrated Packages’ of interventions to strengthen ICDS implementation. An attempt is made to draw best practices from these projects, some of which are listed in the following matrix.

Programs/ Projects of development agencies supporting ICDS treated as Integrated-Packages of best practices

| Name of the Project | Location, Supporting agency and other details |
|--|---|
| Andhra Pradesh Economic Restructuring Project (APERP) | Andhra Pradesh – World Bank (1999-2005) |
| Anchal Se Angan Tak (ASAT) | Rajasthan - UNICEF (2001-2006) |
| Community Based Mother and Child Health and Nutrition (MCHN) Project | Uttar Pradesh – UNICEF (2001- 2005) |
| Dular | Bihar/Jharkhand – UNICEF (Ongoing) |
| ICDS III (WCD) | 5 states at start then an additional 6 states added in 2003. World Bank (1999-2006) |
| Positive Deviance (PD) | Multiple states. UNICEF (Ongoing in some states) |
| Integrated Nutrition and Health Project (INHP) | 8 States. CARE/ USAID (1996 to 2010) |
| Tamil Nadu Integrated Nutrition Program (TINP) 1 and 2 | Tamil Nadu. World Bank (TINP 1 – 1980-89; TINP 2 – 1990-97) |

While many of these projects/ programs listed in the above table have been evaluated with pre-post surveys, effectiveness of individual components (the potential best practices listed below) is often not measured separately. Further description of each of the practice is available in a more detailed document. Potential best practices emerging from these projects as well as other newer initiatives like Vistaar project of USAID are organized under the following categories¹.

1) Practices for convergence of service delivery to enhance coverage, especially of poor

- Village Health and Nutrition Days(Also referred to as Nutrition Health Days, Monthly Health Days, Mother and Child Health and Nutrition Days etc) (Demonstrated in few states and currently scaled up all across the country)²

² The states/ areas in which these practices are primarily implemented are indicated in the parenthesis.

- Bi-annual health and nutrition weeks/ months and other convergent campaigns for service delivery***

(Currently implemented in all states, with varied schedules and coordination mechanisms)

Charter of Gender Budget CellsComposition of Gender Budget Cells

The Gender Budget Cell (GBC) should comprise a cohesive group of senior/ middle level officers from the Plan, Policy, Coordination, Budget and Accounts Division of the Ministry concerned. This group should be headed by an officer not below the rank of Joint Secretary. The functions and working of the GBC may be reviewed at least once a quarter at the level of Secretary/ Additional Secretary of the Department.

Functions of Gender Budget Cells

The GBC may set for itself, specific quarterly / half yearly / annual targets to be achieved in terms of the following suggested areas of work.

(1) Identification of a minimum of 3 and maximum of 6 largest programmes (in terms of budget allocation) implementation by the Ministry and the major Sub –Programmes there under, with a view to conducting an analysis of the gender issues addressed by them.

- * This is to be facilitated by describing the current situation with respect to the Sub-Programme (using disaggregated data in terms of beneficiaries as much as possible) and describing the activities for achieving the given output.
- * Output indicators may be identified for measurement against performance in the coming year.
- * Activities targeted at improving the situation of women under these programmes may be highlighted. In this regard, an assessment may be made of the extent to which sectoral policies address the situation of women, whether budget allocation are adequate to implement the gender responsive policy; monitoring whether the money was actually spent as planned, what was delivered and to whom; and whether the policy as implemented changed the situation described, in the direction of promoting / achieving greater gender equality.
- * Results of this analysis may be included as an annex tilted “Gender Responsive Budgeting Initiative” in the Ministry’s Outcome / Performance Budget for the year.
- * GBCs of such Ministries/ Departments which have identified programmes where 100% of the budgetary allocation for the scheme is earmarked to benefit women, may undertake a similar analysis as described above. Results of this analysis may also be included in the Ministry’s Department’s Outcome / Performance budget for the year.

- (2) Conducting / Commissioning Performance audit (at the field level wherever possible) for reviewing the actual physical / financial targets of the programme, the constraints if any, in implementation, the need for strengthening delivery systems, infrastructure/ capacity building etc.
- (3) Organizing meetings / discussions / consultations with GBCs of related departments within the Ministry, field level organization / civil society groups / NGOs working in the sector for exchanging ideas and getting feedback on the efficacy of sectoral policies and programmes.
- (4) Suggesting further policy interventions based on findings of the above.
- (5) Participating in and organizing Training / Sensitization / Capacity Building workshops for officials, concerned with formulation of policy / programme implementation & budget and accounts at the Ministerial level and also in the implementing agencies / attached / subordinate offices and organizations under the administrative control of the Ministry.
- (6) Apparently “gender neutral” programmes are not necessarily gender neutral in the impact they have, when seen through gender lens. Hence, in sectors like Defence, Power, Telecom, Communications, Transport and Industry, etc. GBCs may undertake an exercise to identify the possibility of undertaking initiatives / special measures to facilitate / improve access to services for women and their active participation in the decision making process at various levels.
- (7) Disseminate best practices followed by those Divisions of the Department/ Ministry implementing schemes, which have done good work in analyzing the schemes / programmes from gender perspective which have brought about changes in policy/ operational guidelines.
- (8) Prepare a Chapter on Gender perspective related to the Sector / Service covered by the Ministry and the impact of the existing policies / programmes and resources employed in meeting the specific needs of women for reflection in the Ministry’s Outcome / Performance Budget.
